Curriculum Vitae

Alexander Leijdesdorff was born on July 20th 1982 in Willemstad, Curacao. After graduating from the Willem de Zwijger College in Bussum in 2001, he started his medical studies at the University of Amsterdam in 2002. During his study, he worked at Bio Implant Services in Leiden during which he was responsible for cornea and cardiac valve explantation procedures. Before starting his clinical internships, he went to Ho-Chi-Minh City Vietnam for three months to participate in a scientific internship at the National Hospital of Odonto-Stomatology, which is the main hospital responsible for the care of maxillofacial trauma in Southern Vietnam, under the supervision of dr. L. Dubois.

After finishing his medical studies in 2009 he started working as a resident Surgery, not in training at the Department of Surgery at Onze Lieve Vrouwe Gasthuis in Amsterdam (dr. M. Gerhards). In the same year, he started his scientific work on road traffic accidents together with Prof. dr. I.B. Schipper.

In 2011 he started his General Surgical training in Gelre Ziekenhuizen in Apeldoorn (dr. W. H. Bouma and dr. P. van Duijvendijk), followed by a year of training in the Academic Medical Centre Amsterdam (prof. dr. O.R.C. Busch). Further training in Trauma Surgery followed in 2015 in the Academic Medical Centre Amsterdam (prof. dr. J.C. Goslings) and in 2016 in the MCH (Medisch Centrum Haaglanden) (dr. S.J. Rhemrev).

Following his surgical training in 2017, he was appointed as a fellow in Orthopaedic Trauma at Liverpool Hospital, New South Wales, Australia under the supervision of prof. Ian Harris. At the beginning of 2018, he returned to the Haaglanden Medical Centre where he still works as a permanent Trauma Surgeon.

During his career, he developed a special interest in the education and training of medical students, interns and residents. And from May 2022 he will become the acting Surgical Training Program Director of the Department of Surgery of the Haaglanden Medical Centre.

Alexander lives happily together with his wife Wendy in the Hague, the Netherlands and they are proud parents of three sons (Flint, Toby and Feys).

Acknowledgements

Mijn promotor Prof. dr. I.B. Schipper, beste Inger, veel dank voor je eindeloze geduld, plezierige samenwerking en vertrouwen gedurende dit project. Zonder jouw ongelooflijke enthousiasme was dit project nooit tot een goed en fraai einde gekomen.

Mijn co-promotor Dr. P. Krijnen, beste Pieta, veel dank voor je altijd scherpe en kritische blik gedurende dit project. Altijd stond je klaar met nieuwe ideeën en was je bereid om te helpen bij de correctie van artikelen. Het was me een waar genoegen om met je samen te werken.

Beste maten van de OE Heelkunde Haaglanden Medisch Centrum en in het bijzonder beste collega Traumachirurgen, jullie zijn een inspirerend voorbeeld voor mij geweest om dit project ook daadwerkelijk af te maken. Veel dank.

Lieve paranimfen, beste Noah en Teun, dank voor jullie hulp vandaag, maar vooral veel dank voor jullie vriendschap.

Lieve familie, heel veel dank voor jullie steun en interesse. Het zit er eindelijk op!

Lieve Wendy, zonder jouw onuitputtelijke steun was het mij never nooit gelukt dit project succesvol af te ronden. Onwijs veel dank.
