Curriculum Vitae

Marieke Meelen was born on 10 September 1986 in Maastricht, The Netherlands. She started studying Comparative Indo-European Linguistics and Hebrew and Aramaic studies at Leiden University in 2004, minoring in Comparative Religious Studies. She obtained her Bachelors degree in linguistics in 2008 and was admitted to the two-year Research Master programme in linguistics in Leiden that same year. During her masters, she completed various post-graduate modules in Celtic Studies at Utrecht University in The Netherlands and she spent a year as an Erasmus student at Aberystwyth University in Wales to learn Welsh. In 2010, she completed her MPhil (with distinction) and received a PhD fellowship from Leiden University for her project on syntactic change in Welsh. This thesis is the result of this research.
