

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Contesting sharia : state law, decentralization and Minangkabau custom

Huda, Y.

Citation

Huda, Y. (2013, December 4). Contesting sharia : state law, decentralization and Minangkabau custom. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/22643>

Version: Corrected Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/22643>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/22643> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation

Author: Huda, Yasrul

Title: Contesting sharia : state law, decentralization and Minangkabau custom

Issue Date: 2013-12-04

CONTESTING SHARIA: STATE LAW, DECENTRALIZATION AND MINANGKABAU CUSTOM

Proefschrift

ter verkrijging van de graad van Doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van Rector Magnificus prof.mr. C.J.J.M. Stolker, volgens besluit van het College voor Promoties te verdedigen op woensdag 4 december 2013
klokke 10.00 uur

Door:
Yasrul Huda
Geboren te Pasaman
In 1967

Promotie Commissie:

Promotor : Prof. dr. L.P.H.M. Buskens

Co-Promotor : Dr. N.J.G. Kaptein

Overige leden : Prof. Dr. H.L. Beck
Dr. A.W. Bedner
Prof. dr. D. Douwes
Prof. dr. D.E.F. Henley
Prof. dr. J. M. Otto

Contents

Transcription notes	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Background to the study	1
Related studies	8
Focus of the study	12
Research questions.....	13
Methods	13
Organization of the book.....	15
Chapter 1	18
Sharia: From global to local	18
1.1 Introduction	18
1.2 The concept of Sharia	19
1.3. Role of Sharia in Muslim countries	21
1.4 Position of Sharia in the Indonesian legal system	24
1.5 Integrating Sharia with the state.....	27
1.5.1 Islamic education.....	28
1.5.2 Islamic courts	30
1.5.3 Marriage	33
1.5.4 Compilation of Islamic law.....	35
1.5.5 Endowment.....	37
1.5.6 Pilgrimage	39
1.5.7 Islamic finance	42
1.5.8 Penal code	44

1.6 Bringing Sharia to the regions	46
1.6.1 Sharia in Aceh	49
1.6.2 Sharia in other provinces	50
1.7 Sharia in West Sumatra	53
1.8 Conclusions	58
Chapter 2	60
Maintaining ‘public morality’:	60
Prevention and elimination of unlawful acts	60
2.1 Introduction	60
2.2. Islamic rules on public law	61
2.3 Islamic public law in Muslim countries	64
2.4 Immorality within Indonesian public law	67
2.4.1 In the province of Aceh	69
2.4.2 In other provinces	71
2.5 Public morality in West Sumatra	72
2.5.1 Provincial Law	74
2.5.1.1 The draft	75
2.5.1.2 Provincial law 11/2001	84
2.5.2 Regional/municipal law	86
2.5.2.1 The municipality of Bukittinggi	87
2.5.2.2 The municipality of Padangpanjang	88
2.5.2.3 Kabupaten of Pesisir Selatan, Padangpariman, Sawahlunto and Payakumbuh	89
2.5.2.4 The municipality of Padang	89
2.6 Actual practices for maintaining public morality in Padang	93
2.6.1 Satpol PP	94
2.6.2 Actual practices relating to municipal law	96

2.7 Conclusions	103
Chapter 3	105
Dress codes: Islam, custom and uniform.....	105
3.1. Introduction	105
3.2 Islamic rules on dress	106
3.3 Current debate in the Muslim world.....	109
3.4 Changes and regulations in Indonesia	111
3.5 Muslim dress within West Sumatran culture	114
3.6 Provincial, regional/municipal law on Islamic dress	118
3.6.1 Provincial law	119
3.6.2 Regional/municipal law.....	120
3.7 The practice of wearing Muslim dress.....	126
3.7.1 The meaning of Islamic dress according to the mayor	129
3.7.2 The meaning of Islamic dress for wearers.....	132
3.7.3 The meaning for the viewer.....	136
3.7.3.1 Non-Muslims	136
3.7.3.2 Parents, family members and neighbors	138
3.8 Public debate: Contestation of values	142
3.9 Conclusions	145
Chapter 4.....	147
Recitation of the Quran: Maintaining tradition.....	147
4.1. Introduction	147
4.2 Rules on recitation of the Quran.....	149
4.3 Recitation of the Quran in the Muslim world	154
4.4 The Indonesian government's policy on Quranic recitation.	156
4.5 Quranic education within West Sumatran tradition	160

4.6 Local law on Quranic recitation	164
4.6.1 Provincial law	164
4.6.2 Regional law.....	168
4.7 Practices of Quranic recitation.....	172
4.7.1 SD Plus	172
4.7.2 Quranic recitation.....	175
4.7.3 Response.....	182
4.7.4 Impact.....	183
4.8 Conclusions	186
CHAPTER 5	188
ZAKĀT IN TRANSITION:.....	188
THE INVOLVEMENT OF GOVERNMENT	188
5.1 Introduction.....	188
5.2 Rules on zakāt and a new interpretation	189
5.2.1 Rules on zakāt	190
5.2.1.1 Zakāt on property	191
5.2.1.2 Zakāt for individuals (zakāt al-fiṭr).....	193
5.2.2 New interpretation of the rules on zakāt	194
5.3 Roles of zakāt in the Muslim world	197
5.4 Changes and regulations in Indonesia	198
5.4.1 Changing attitude of the government.....	198
5.4.2 Regulations on zakāt	203
5.4.2.1 Law 38/1999.....	203
5.4.2.2 Law 23/2011	206
5.5. Provincial, regional/municipal laws on zakāt	208
5.5.1 Provincial law	209
5.5.2 Regional/Municipal law	209

5.6 The practices in the Municipality of Padang	215
5.6.1 Establishment of BAZDA	217
5.6.2 Collecting zakāt	220
5.6.3 Distribution of the collected revenue	223
5.7 Resistance	225
5.8 Conclusions	229
CONCLUSIONS	231
Appendices.....	241
Glossary	280
Bibliography	289
Samenvatting	330
Curriculum Vitae of Yasrul Huda	331

Transcription notes

In this thesis Arabic script is transliterated into English as follows:

English	Arabic	English	Arabic	Long vowels
ʾ	أ
t	ت	ḍ	ظ	ā	ا
th	ث	ʿ	ع	ī	إ - ي
j	ج	gh	غ	ū	و
ḥ	ح	f	ف	ā	ى
kh	خ	q	ق
d	د	k	ك
dh	ذ	l	ل
r	ر	m	م
z	ز	n	ن
s	س	h	ه
sh	ش	w	و
ṣ	ص	y	ي
ẓ	ض	a	ة
ṭ	ط	at	ة..
Diphthongs		Assimilation of the definite article
aw	او	al-	ال..
ay	اي	al-sh	الش
Wa-al	..وال

Hamza is dropped when it occurs at the beginning of a word.

Acknowledgements

This book would not have existed without the help and support of a number of individuals and institutions. To begin with, this project would not have existed without the Training Indonesia's Young Leaders (TIYL): Muslim intellectuals as agents of change program hosted by Leiden University. This provided me with the possibility to study for my PhD at Leiden University. My thanks go to Prof. Wim Stockof and Dr. Nico Kaptein and other scholars behind the scenes of this important project, including Marise van Amersfoort, the program coordinator. I would also like to express my thanks and appreciation to the dean of the Sharia Faculty and the rector of the State Institute for Islamic studies (IAIN) Imam Bonjol Padang for giving their permission for my participation in the TIYL program.

This study could not have been completed without the unstinting interest and support of my supervisor Prof. Léon Buskens and co-supervisor Dr. Nico Kaptein. Both are deeply engaged and follow a well-known maxim among Muslim jurists lā shukran li al-wājib, and they both deserve the deepest gratitude for what they have done and for going far beyond their 'obligations'. They have both inspired me and have been tireless in providing interesting discussions and constructive comments to help me improve my manuscript and complete this book. They have both provided great personal support during my time in the program and, in particular, when I had to travel between Europe and Asia to be with my family in Padang after the 8.2 scale of earthquake that shook the city on 30 September 2009. They also allowed me to prioritize taking care of my wife who fell sick between November 2009 to January 2010 and from April to June 2010.

My gratitude also goes to Prof. M.B Hooker and Prof. Virginia Hooker (Canberra) who gave me invaluable support and encouragement. They inspired me to study this theme since I first met with them in Padang after my return from Leiden in 2003.

They appointed me as a local researcher for their project Islam and Islamic law in regional Indonesia from 2005 to 2007 and permitted me to use collected data for my own research. My thanks go to Hui Kian Kwee who shared her academic spirit and culture and was a source of inspiration and enlightenment. She also deserves my deepest gratitude for her warm friendship, kindness and care. A particular word of appreciation must go to Prof. Azyumardi Azra for his support and inspiration and for taking time to share his knowledge with the fellows of TIYL, including me, whenever he was visiting the Netherlands. My thanks go to Prof. Amir Syarifuddin who inspired, supported and encouraged me to study at Leiden University. My appreciation too, for Prof. A. Teeuw, who passed away on 18 May 2012. Prof Teeuw not only provided me with a home for a year during my time in Leiden, but most importantly I commemorate him because I was his last student. He was still teaching me at the age of 90 and he showed me how to work as a scholar. I owe him a debt of gratitude which I cannot repay. My thanks, too, to Prof. Kees van Dijk who gave me his friendship during our weekly meeting in the KITLV library every Friday.

My thanks also go to the Leiden University staffs, administrators, security staff, and librarians of the UB, Law faculty, Sociale wetenschappen, and KITLV. My particular appreciation is expressed for Rini Hogewoning, Josephine Schrama, Sven Aalten and Syed Abdul Razak bin Shaik at KITLV. My thanks too, to Anna Yeadell, Margote Ferary and Ibu Rosmery Robson all of whom have helped me with my English. I express gratitude too, to Alicia Schrikker who gave me the invaluable opportunity to take the intensive Dutch course together with other student of the Encompass program between August 2009 and 2010.

The interest, help and support of several other colleagues, friends and acquaintances should be here acknowledged. Many thanks to all the fellows of TIYL: Amiq (IAIN Surabaya/Leiden University), Din Wahid (UIN Jakarta/Utrecht University), Hilman Latief (UM Jogjakarta/Utrecht University), Kusmana (UIN Jakarta/Rotterdam University), Sujadi (UIN Jogjakarta/Leiden University), Nur Kholis (IAIN Surabaya/Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam), Siti Nurul Azkiyah (UIN Jakarta/Groningen University), Salamah Agung (UIN Jakarta/Utrecht University), and Yanwar Pribadi (IAIN Banten/Leiden University). My appreciation goes to my colleagues and friends Dr. Abdul Halim (UIN Jakarta) DR. Iskandar Ritonga (IAIN Surabaya), other colleagues and friends from Padang, including Pak Aditiawarman, Pak Djamrul Djamal, Ibu Idawati Djohar, ali Yasman, Abar, Alfadli, Hulwati, Irsadunas, Muhammad Taufik, Muhammad Yenis, Luqmanul Hakim, Syofia Ulfah, Romi Suhardi and Testru Hendra. My special thanks go to my old best friend Ernis Rahman for invaluable support and encouragement. My deepest gratitude is also expressed to the people I met during my fieldwork in West Sumatra. This includes all respondents, local officers, librarians, journalists, ulama, adat functionaries and other people, too numerous to mention by name here.

During my stay in Leiden, I received the help, support, inspiration, and spirit from Suryadi and Nurlismanier Mustafa, Marjoline N. van de Bilt and Muhammad Guswedi Piliang, Dr. Nadia Sonneveld and Thomas, Pak Mien Tardjo, the family of Prof. A. Teeuw (Marijke, Anandi, Josine, Arie and Kristina) and Richard van der Schaar. My recognition is also for friends and colleagues who I met in Leiden including Dyah A. Perwitasari, Dinar Sari Cahyaningrum Wahyuni, Tri Rini Nuringtyas, Sylvia Tunjung Pratiwi, Lusvita Fitri Nuzuliyanti, Donna Siregar, Pemanus, Wedda Palemeg, Ariel Lopez, and Jingbo Wang, Prima Nurahmi, Aries and others too numerous to mentions.

I would also like to express my deepest appreciation for the unending support of my father H. Syamsul Khair, my mother Hj. Mishanimar, my brothers and sister Asrul Wathan, Wisma Yarti and Haizul Fitri, and my extended family and friends. I cannot fail to remember my late father-in-law Nurdin Usman who died on 12 June 2001.

This study is fully dedicated to my beloved wife Husna Nurdin and my two lovely children Nastasya Aisya Putri (born in 1999) and Maulal Fikra Hidayat (born in 2000). Without their support I would not be able to accomplish my study. Thus, this thesis is dedicated to their love, compassion and support.

Last but not least, it remains for me to exonerate all these persons from any responsibility for errors or deficiencies in this study.

Leiden, April 2013

YH

Map of Indonesia (Blackwood 2010:5)

Map of the Province of West Sumatra (BPS 2010:vi)

