ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all I would like to extend my special gratitude to Prof. M.C. Ricklefs. Without him I would not have been able to arrive at this stage. He offered me a generous fellowship, superb supervision and critical reading of my manuscript as well as warm friendship, especially when we worked together at the National University of Singapore (NUS), from April 2008 to July 2011.

Unfortunately, Leiden mos does not allow me to thank the people at Leiden University for their role in the completion of this dissertation. I am very thankful to A/P Michael Feener who often offered his help in times of need. This research project was funded by the Singaporean Ministry of Education for which I am extremely grateful. I am also indebted to Prof. Albert Lau and A/P Yong Mun Cheong for giving me the chance to join the Department of History from 2008 to 2011. I would like to thank Letha Kumar who helped me with the administration of my fieldwork trips.

My thankfulness and humility should go to the people of West Java for their openness and warmth. At this point I would like to make a particular mention of Hawe Setiawan who shared his in-depth understanding of Sundanese culture and society. I also thank my friends who helped me in collecting data, particularly Gaus, Hajar, Nabil and Muchtadlirin.

I am also grateful to Prof. Komaruddin Hidayat, Prof. Azyumardi Azra, Prof. Kamaruddin Amin, Prof. Amsal Bakhtiar, Prof. Bahtiar Effendy and Prof. Dede Rosada for their encouragement. I am grateful to uncle Rafiq, aunty Aloya, Nazir, Aji al-Attas, and Din Wahid for their sincere support. I am indebted to my friends at CSRC for their strong support including Irfan, Idris, Efri, Sholehudin, Haula, Sari and Risma. Special thanks to Budi Rahman, Agung Prihatna and Dayat, whose help I will never forget.

The editing work was done by Dr. Dick van der Meij. I owe much to Dick for his contribution, not only because he got this manuscript ready to be defended, but also because for his support as a friend. Thanks for our laughter in the process!

To my beloved wife and children, Ety, Diny, Zidan and Sarah: Without your love I would not have been strong enough to accomplish this work. Similar encouragement also came from my mother Aisyah and my father Saleh. They never tired to inspire me to finish the book.
