...the data that the findings
...of your report to Dr. Bowlby also? I know he would be very
...If he hasn't a copy, may I send him this one rather than
...directly? In the meantime I shall hold it whilst awaiting your
...indeed for sending me your report. I found it very helpful and
...are many other things I should like to discuss with you,
...them very clearly as yet. Perhaps I may write again?
Yours sincerely,

Mary D. Ainsworth, be interested in his letter and I have also made a copy
...report for you, which I am making surplus mail.
...they - the appropriate ones in the theoretical discussion
...and Bowl - have not been sent. The material, as the ...original copy of some of the letters, which I have ...understand. I always thought the possibility of the
...which I report on and which I have been applying -
...it is great after the other substance has been applied -
...it! You will find it most interesting in it. Hope you can
