CURRICULUM VITAE

Barbara Ortiz was born in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1984. In 2006, she obtained a master's degree in History at the University of Antwerp. As part of this master, she studied for one semester in Spain, at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, in the context of an Erasmus exchange program. During this semester she focused on Mesoamerican history and anthropology.

After her History studies, she obtained a master-after-master's degree in International Relations and Diplomacy (2006-2007), and a master in Cultural Management (2007-2008) at the University of Antwerp.

In 2008, she enrolled in the Research Master in Latin American and Amerindian Studies at Leiden University. One year later, she started her PhD research at Leiden University, under supervision of prof. dr. Maarten Jansen (Leiden University) and prof. dr. Antonella Cammarota (Università degli Studi di Messina).

Between 2008 and 2014, Barbara Ortiz also worked as scientific staff at the Center for Mexican Studies of the University of Antwerp.

Since 2014, she is the research coordinator of the Belgian federal Institute for the equality of women and men.
