

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Legal Implications of airport privatization in India

George, M.

Citation

George, M. (2016, November 24). Legal Implications of airport privatization in India. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/44409>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/44409>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/44409> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation

Author: George, Moses

Title: Legal implications of airport privatization in India

Issue Date: 2016-11-24

Curriculum Vitae

Moses George was born in 1964 at Kottayam, Kerala, India, where he lived with his brothers and sister till 1988. He now lives in Bangalore with his wife Annamma, and two children, Namitha and Rtwick. He did his BSc from Kerala University. In 1988 he joined National Airports Authority (NAA) (India) and moved to Nagpur, India. He obtained his LLB and Post graduate diploma in Computer application from Nagpur University, India. He has also obtained LLM from Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala, India.

He has served NAA and its successor Airports Authority of India (AAI) in different capacities. His core job was maintenance of Communication, Navigation and Surveillance equipment in AAI at many airports till 2003, and thereafter he has handled legal matters of AAI, Bangalore airport till November 2013. In this capacity he handled airport related litigation at City court, High Court and Supreme Court levels as well as arbitrations. From November 2013 to December 2014, he worked as Assistant General Manager, in the corporate headquarters of AAI. He has joined AAI, Bangalore airport in January 2015.

In December 2014 he successfully completed ICAO Instructors Course under INDIA-ICAO Developing Countries Fellowship Training Programme. In June 2016 he also successfully completed ICAOs Training Developers Course (TDC) under TRAINAIR plus programme.

He is also a visiting faculty in Centre for Air and Space Law (CASL) of National Academy of legal Studies and Research (NALSAR), Hyderabad, India, where he teaches Diploma and Post Graduate students. He has also been a judge for various international air and space law moot court competitions. He has attended and presented papers at many international conferences and has published many articles in International Journals.