

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Restructuring in the Shadow of the Law. Informal Reorganisation in the Netherlands

Adriaanse, Jan

Citation

Adriaanse, J. (2005, December 15). Restructuring in the Shadow of the Law. Informal Reorganisation in the Netherlands. Kluwer|The commercial edition can be ordered through www.kluwershop.nl at a price per copy of ___57,75. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/9755>

Version: Corrected Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/9755>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Curriculum vitae

Jan Adriaanse, who was born in Oosterhout, the Netherlands, on 23 October 1972, gained his pre-university education certificate at the Monseigneur Frencken College in Oosterhout in 1991. From 1991 to 1994 he studied Business Administration at Nyenrode University (Bachelor of Business Administration programme). He then went on to study Tax Law at Leiden University. From mid-2000, he has been employed as a lecturer/researcher at the department for Business Economics and Forensic Accountancy of the Faculty of Law at Leiden University, as well as the Centre for Business Studies. He is engaged in the coordination of the 'Law and Business Studies' bachelor programme, and arranges training in the field of strategic entrepreneurship and business restructuring. As a consultant, he is connected to NIVRA-Nyenrode, the accountants training of the Royal Dutch Institute of Chartered Accountants (NIVRA) and Nyenrode University; he is also a member of the study programme of the Dutch trade organisation for credit management (VVCN). Furthermore, he holds a seat on the Kuratorium of the German Verein für Credit Management e.V.