1. It's worthy to put effort in expanding the application range of classical techniques (e.g. NMR, SPPS, etc.).
(This thesis, Chapter 2)
2. The study of peptide self-assembly with reversed sequences may expand the application of de novo designed peptides.
(This thesis, Chapter 3)
3. Concentration is a key factor in the study of self-assembly.
(This thesis, Chapter 4)
4. Model optimization is indispensable for expanding application of artificial membrane fusion system.
(This thesis, Chapter 5&6)
5. A good researcher consists of a scholar, a laborer, a writer, an artist, and an orator.
6. A good scientist consists of a good researcher, a businessman, a designer, and a leader.
7. Western wise is eloquent, while Chinese wise is tacit.
8. Complaining is the most useless behavior developed by human beings!
9. Life is a mirror; everything we see is actually a reflection of ourselves!
10. The most essential project in life is 'How to consume a limited lifetime?'
