

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

The Bey, the mufti and the scattered pearls : Shari'a and political leadership in Tunisia's Age of Reform -1800-1864

Haven, Elisabeth Cornelia van der

Citation

Haven, E. C. van der. (2006, October 26). The Bey, the mufti and the scattered pearls : Shari'a and political leadership in Tunisia's Age of Reform -1800-1864. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4968>

Version: Corrected Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4968>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Preface and Acknowledgements

Writing the dissertation proved to be far from a solitary adventure. Now that the task has come to an end, it is a pleasure to recall the many persons that supported and encouraged me in my research and in the arduous work of revealing the meaning of the religious documents, written in the Arabic of generations long gone. Many hours were spent in Leiden, Tunis and in the small village north of it, La Marsa, weighing words and phrases and discussing the issues under study.

I owe a particular debt to Dr. Muḥammad El-Aziz Ben Achour, at present His Excellency the Minister of Culture and National Heritage, who kindly invited me to the library of his grandfather, the late Mālikī shaykh al-islām, Muḥammad aṭ-Ṭāhir Ben Achour, and did me the honor of handing a copy of Muḥammad Bayram's treatise on governance and law, in manuscript.

Special appreciation is reserved to those in Tunisia who lent me their ear and helped me understand the distinct Tunisian culture of learning, prof.dr. Mohamed-Hédi Cherif, prof.dr. H'mida Enneifer, prof.dr. Abdelhamid Henia, mr. Raouf Riahi, prof.dr. Mohamed Talbi, prof.dr. Abdeljelil Temimi, mr. Ahmed Lahbib Djellouli, mrs. Ouassila Bayram, and mr. Mohamed Bennānī of Bayt Bennānī.

Last but not least my thanks are due to the staff of the Leiden University Library, to the staff of the Bibliothèque Nationale de Tunisie, then still in the old barracks in the medina, and to the Fathers of the Institut des Belles Lettres Arabes (IBLA) in Tunis.

The research in Tunisia could not have taken place without the generous financial support of the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO), the Stichting Oosters Instituut of Leiden University, the Stichting Dr. Hendrik Muller's Vaderlandsch Fonds and the Slavenkas of Zierikzee.

As for the transliteration of names and terms in Arabic, I have adopted the system as employed by the Encyclopedia of Islam, with the exception that I replaced k with qaf.