Curriculum Vitae

Jasmina Mačkić was born in Čapljina, Bosnia and Herzegovina, on 27 April 1984. In September 1993, she fled war in Bosnia and Herzegovina together with her parents and sister and brother. She attended the Alfrink College Zoetermeer, The Netherlands, where she graduated in 2003. She finished her Masters in Criminal law and criminal procedure (2008) and European law (2009) in Leiden. After her graduation she taught the course 'European Convention on Human Rights' at the Europa Institute in Leiden and worked for the Council of State of the Netherlands. In 2010 she has been awarded a Mozaïek subsidy from the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO) to carry out PhD research at the Europa Institute in Leiden. During her research period, she has conducted a two-month internship in Strasbourg at the Council of Europe's Roma Support Team, a body within the Council of Europe dedicated to a variety of issues concerning the Roma. Additionally, she stayed for five months as a Visiting Research Scholar at the University of Michigan Law School in Ann Arbor in 2013. Between September 2015 and December 2016, she has been working as a lecturer for the Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, the Moot Court Department (both at Leiden Law School) and the University of Applied Sciences in Leiden. Since January 2017 she has been working as a lecturer and researcher at the Europa Institute at Leiden Law School.
