

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

The constitutional revolution of 1908 and its aftermath in Trabzon Ahmetoglu, S.

Citation

Ahmetoglu, S. (2019, February 12). The constitutional revolution of 1908 and its aftermath in Trabzon. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/68645>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/68645>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/68645> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation.

Author: Ahmetoglu, S.

Title: The constitutional revolution of 1908 and its aftermath in Trabzon

Issue Date: 2019-02-12

THE CONSTITUTIONAL REVOLUTION OF 1908
AND ITS AFTERMATH IN TRABZON

Proefschrift

Ter verkrijging van

De graad van Doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van Rector Magnificus prof. Mr. C.J.J.M. Stolker

volgens besluit van het College voor Promoties te verdedigen op dinsdag 12 februari 2019

klokke 15.00 uur

door

Selim Ahmetoğlu

geboren te Trabzon

in 1979

Promotor: Prof. Dr. Erik Jan Zürcher

Promotiecommissie: Prof. Dr. Manon van der Heijden
Prof. Dr. Jan Lucassen (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
Dr. Uğur Üngör (Universiteit Utrecht) to whom I have lost:

my father, Yusuf Ahmetođlu (1944-2009)
and my Hoca, Dr. Yavuz Selim Karakışla (1961-2016)

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	9
INTRODUCTION	11
A Brief Historical Overview	12
The Aims and Subject of the Study	15
Sources and Methods	16
Work Plan	18
CHAPTER I
POLITICAL LIFE IN TRABZON (1908-1914)	21
1.1. Political Developments in Trabzon before the Proclamation of the Second Constitutional Period	21
1.2. Developments in Trabzon after the Proclamation of the Second Constitution	25
1.3. Perceptions of the Second Constitutional Period in Trabzon	28
1.4. Celebrations in Trabzon for the Opening of Parliament	31
1.5. Reactions to New Press Regulations	33
1.6. The Impacts of the Incident of March 31st on Trabzon	35
1.7. The Committee of Union and Progress in Trabzon	42
1.8. Opposition in Trabzon during the Second Constitutional Period	51
1.9. Finance Minister Cavit Bey's Trabzon Trip	55
1.10. Elections in Trabzon	59
1.11. Impacts of Wars on Trabzon	71
1.11.1. The War of Tripoli (1911)	71
1.11.2. The Balkan Wars (1912-1913)	76
1.12. Commemoration of the Second Constitutional Period in Trabzon: The Celebration of 10 July	82
1.13. Governors and Incidents	84
1.14. Consulates in Trabzon	87
Conclusion	89

CHAPTER II

ECONOMIC LIFE IN TRABZON (1908-1914)	93
2.1. The Economy before the Proclamation of the Second Constitution in Trabzon	93
2.2. The Railway Problem of Trabzon	94
2.3. Port Problems in Trabzon	98
2.4. The Trabzon General Directorship of Customs	100
2.5. The Private Sector in Trabzon	102
2.6. Agriculture in Trabzon	105
2.7. Various Issues Regarding Commerce in Trabzon	108
2.8. Boycotts in Trabzon:	110
2.8.1. Boycott against Austria and Bulgaria	110
2.8.1.1. The Impact of the 1908 Boycott on Trabzon	112
2.8.2. The Greek Boycott in Trabzon	118
Conclusion	123

CHAPTER III

EDUCATION AND CULTURAL LIFE IN TRABZON (1908-1914)	125
3.1. Educational Life	125
3.1.1. Educational Life in Trabzon before the Second Constitutional Period	125
3.1.2. Minority Schools	126
3.1.3. Mission Schools	127
3.1.4. Education in Trabzon during the Second Constitutional Period	129
3.2. Cultural Life	141
3.2.1. The Press	141
3.2.1.1. Newspapers	141
3.2.1.2. The Printing Presses	143
3.2.2. Theatre and Cinema	144
Conclusion	147

CHAPTER IV
SOCIAL AND DAILY LIFE IN TRABZON (1908-1914)	151
4.1. Clubs and Societies in Trabzon	151
4.1.1. The Union Club	152
4.1.2. Science and Arts Youth Club	156
4.1.3. The Ottoman Merchants' Club	158
4.1.4. The Ottoman Club	159
4.1.5. Society for Educational Progress and the Protection of Children	160
4.1.6. Trabzon Red Crescent Society	162
4.1.7. The Trabzon Lawyers' Society	163
4.1.8. The Ottoman Patriotic Society	163
4.1.9. Trabzon Naval Society	164
4.1.10. Trabzon Province Progress and Elevation Club	166
4.1.11. Society for Greek Merchants and Employees in Trabzon	166
4.2. Donation Campaigns	167
4.3. Health Issues	173
4.4. Natural Disasters	176
4.4.1. Earthquakes	176
4.4.2. Fires	177
4.5. Minorities and Foreigners	178
4.5.1. Greeks (Rum)	178
4.5.2. Armenians	180
4.5.3. Foreigners	183
4.6. Other Daily Events	186
Conclusion	188
CONCLUSION	191
BIBLIOGRAPHY	197
SAMENVATTING	231
CURRICULUM VITAE	236
PROPOSITIONS	237

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The thesis that you are holding now is a product of a long and a hard-working process. In the beginning of my Ph.D. education in Leiden University, I was supposing that I would soon finish the following thesis and have graduation in time. However, the life upset downs all my plans.

This thesis is completed owing to the contributions of many people. After finishing the thesis, I realized that there existed a long list consisting the names to whom I had to thank for their great helps. I want to deeply thank to my cousins in Amsterdam, Ali Mercimek and Sevim Mercimek who gave sincere contributions during different phases in my education life that made me successfully reach these days. I also want to thank to Fatma Meliha Ően who helped me to overcome the problems related with Ottoman Turkish. And, I also want to thank my friends M. Kemal Sincer, Ođuzhan Korucu, Mevlüt Özmen, Fatih Çolak, Yusuf Bahçivanođlu, E. Zeynep (Aksoy) Arslan and Enver Arslan, for their support and contributions during this period.

I want to thank my family members, my father Yusuf Ahmetođlu who passed away in 2009, for supporting me from the beginning of my education life and my mother Hamdiye Ahmetođlu that the thesis is completed with the help of her prayers.

I want to express my gratitude to Dr. Nicole van Os for her guidance and help. I want to thank Asist. Prof. Yavuz Selim KarakiŐla, who always helps me and supports me from the first day that we met at Bođaziçi University in September 1998 to November 24th, 2016, the day that he passed away. He has been trying to help me to solve all my problems from the beginning. He is “the advisor of all times” for me. I would not be at this status without his great support and help.

As a conclusion, I owe a great thank my beloved wife Betül Ahmetođlu who always supported me and believed in me and also I want to thank my new born daughter AyŐe Begüm Ahmetođlu who makes the world a better place for me.

I want to finish with a Turkish proverb from Yavuz Hoca that made me smile every time I heard it and that explains my psychology during the writing process of this thesis:

“The worst sort of worker does his best only towards sunset!”

