

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Press freedom, law and politics in Indonesia : a socio-legal study

Wiratraman, H.P.

Citation

Wiratraman, H. P. (2014, December 11). Press freedom, law and politics in Indonesia : a socio-legal study. Meijers-reeks. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/30106>

Version: Corrected Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/30106>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/30106> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation.

Author: Wiratraman, Herlambang Perdana

Title: Press freedom, law and politics in Indonesia : a socio-legal study

Issue Date: 2014-12-11

Press Freedom, Law and Politics in Indonesia

"Try not to become a man of success but rather to become a man of value"
[Albert Einstein, 1879-1955]

For those who continue the struggle for freedom and human rights in Indonesia

Press Freedom, Law and Politics in Indonesia

A Socio-Legal Study

PROEFSCHRIFT

ter verkrijging van de graad van Doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van Rector Magnificus prof. mr. C.J.J.M. Stolker, volgens besluit van het College voor Promoties
te verdedigen op donderdag 11 december 2014
klokke 10.00 uur

door

Herlambang Perdana Wiratraman

geboren te Jember, Indonesië

in 1976

Promotiecommissie:

Promotor: Prof. dr. J.M. Otto

Copromotor: Dr. A.W. Bedner

Overige leden: Prof. dr. A.W. Hins

Prof. dr. N.J.H. Huls

Prof. dr. D.T. Hill (Murdoch University, Perth, Australia)

Mr. A. Astraatmadja (Dr. Soetomo Press Institute, Jakarta, Indonesia)

Lay-out: AlphaZet prepress, Waddinxveen

ISBN 978-94-6203-733-5

© 2014 H. Wiratraman

Behoudens de in of krachtens de Auteurswet van 1912 gestelde uitzonderingen mag niets uit deze uitgave worden veeleelvoudigd, opgeslagen in een geautomatiseerd gegevensbestand of openbaar gemaakt, in enige vorm of op enige wijze, hetzij elektronisch, mechanisch, door fotokopieen, opnamen of enige andere manier, zonder voorafgaande schriftelijke toestemming van de uitgever.

Het reprodrecht wordt niet uitgeoefend.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, made available or communicated to the public, in any form or by any means, without the prior permission in writing of the publisher, unless this is expressly permitted by law.

Acknowledgements

Someone without a background in journalism will never experience what press freedom means as an editor in the newsroom or a reporter in the field will experience it. A dissertation on freedom of the press therefore is a challenge – it is not so much the dissecting and analysing of press law and its enforcement that creates the difficulties, but rather the attempt to imagine the psychological aspects and the obstacles involved. I have therefore greatly relied on those who were kind enough to share their experiences and I am extremely grateful to them.

First of all I want to thank Atmakusumah Astraatmadja, his wife Sri Rumia-ti, and his son Tri L. Astraatmadja. When we met in Leiden in 2008, ‘Pak Atma’, who had been Chairman of the Press Council of Indonesia from 2000-2003, confirmed to me the importance of a legal study about the Indonesian press I had just started. His support was not only in spirit, however, but also by sharing his wide knowledge on the subject and by presenting me with his book “The Demand of Time: Freedom of the Press and Expression” for my birthday.

Thanks also to David Hill who helped me deepen my knowledge of the non-legal aspects of press freedom at the Asia Research Center of Murdoch University, through the ANRC (Australian Netherlands Research Collaboration) programme in 2012. I am grateful to Krishna Sen, Richard Robison, Vedi R. Hadiz, Ian Wilson, Carol Warren, and PhD-candidates Inaya Rakhmani and Nicole Andres, who not only shared their office with me, but also became friends during our discussions about media studies in Indonesia. Thanks also to numerous Indonesian students and fellows at Murdoch who made me ‘feel homey’, Asep Iqbal and his wife (Irma Riyani), Airlangga Pribadi, Darmiyanti Mochtar, A. Room Fitrianto and Raafi Nurkarim.

However, it was Leiden that became my true ‘second home’. First, thank you Hedi Hinzler, my land lady and substitute mother who let me live at her home for many years. Thanks also go to my housemates, Rikardo Simarmata, Abdul Wahid, Hari Nugroho, and two inspiring puppet character makers, Mbah Ledjar Subroto and Nanang Jinantaka. I should also refer to the unceasing help from Pak Mintardjo. His love for Indonesia, and his optimal support for Indonesian students, both in practice and through his ‘learning circle’ (the ‘Pondok Pak Min’ network), have been important to me and many other Indonesians in Leiden. Likewise, I thank the IMWU (Indonesian Migrant Workers Union) friends for inviting me to their many social movement initiatives.

My professional home was the Van Vollenhoven Institute. From the start Kora Bentvelsen and Kari van Weeren have been extremely kind and helpful. Likewise, Jan van Olden gave me a warm welcome and stimulated my work on the PhD. His successor, Dennis Janssen, provided similar support to completing my study. Thank you very much, you really made me feel comfortable at the campus. Many thanks also to the late Albert Dekker, who gave me valuable lessons on how to search for books in 'the jungle' of Leiden law library. I am very grateful to all my VVI- colleagues who through the years were inspiring discussion partners: Ken Setiawan, Myrna A. Safitri, Tristram Moeliono, Surya Tjandra, Loes van Rooijen, Stijn van Huis, Laure d'Hondt, Antonius Cahyadi, Hengky Widjaja, Fachrizal Affandi, Santy Kouwagam, just to mention the most important ones. To Sandra Moniaga, who encouraged and supported me from the beginning of the study: Dank U wel. Many researchers and frequent guests at the VVI helped me by their constructive comments: Jacqueline Vel, Sulistyowati Irianto, Imam Koeswahyono, Mies Grijns, Deasy Simandjuntak, Yuzuru Shimada, Yakub Widodo and Widodo Dwi Putro. Others in Leiden also provided helpful input, notably Dr. Gerard Termorshuizen, about the history of press freedom in the Netherlands East Indies, and Professor Gerry van Klinken on the socio- political context of the Indonesian press. Thank you also, Aboeprijadi Santoso, Siswa Santoso, and Ratna Saptari, for being friends and struggling together for a better Indonesia. During my fieldwork, this research was much helped by the support of journalists, especially those from the Alliance of Independent Journalists (AJI): Nezar Patria, Eko 'item' Maryadi, Stanley Adi Prasetyo, and AJI branch offices throughout Indonesia. LBH Pers's (Press Legal Aid) Hendrayana and his legal team also supported my fieldwork and helped me to obtain legal documents. And, also thank you to LBH Pers Surabaya for making this research would benefit for their activities.

The completion of this study was also constantly supported by a number of people at the Faculty of Law, Universitas Airlangga. Thank you, Dean of the Law Faculty, Professor Muchammad Zaidun, who supported me to pursue a PhD at Leiden University. The unceasing support of Professor Frans Limahelu, Koesrianti, PhD., Nurul Barizah, PhD., Professor Eman Ramelan, Professor Sri Hayati, Professor Peter Machmud Marzuki, Harun Al Sagoff, Endang Sayekti and colleagues at the Department of Constitutional Law, were most meaningful to me. I experienced a deep sense of loss when before I completed this dissertation Professor Soetandyo Wignyosoebroto passed away. I admire him like a father, as a teacher, and like a colleague. He always encouraged the study of social sciences and legal sciences simultaneously, and the last three years before his death took me 'picnicking' in the realm of 'law in society'. Thanks to HuMa and Epistema for keeping up the spirit of developing critical studies of law. Professor Bernard Arief Sidharta helped me by our intense discussions about socio-legal studies.

Now, turn to the manuscript in your hands. A big thank you is for Hannah Mason, who did a very professional job editing the book. Two great people behind this book are Jan Michiel Otto and Adriaan Bedner. Both are familiar with Indonesia's legal system, its history, practice and its development. Jan Michiel, as my promotor and as the director of the VVI, I would like to thank for his contribution in providing many insightful ideas as well as supporting the completion of this study from the beginning to the end. Profuse thanks also to Adriaan, who has taught me so much about law and the social sciences, and provided critical and constructive notes from the start to the end. Adriaan has given a great contribution to the completion of the study, both in terms of research and family support, morally and spiritually, so it feels like he is part of our family itself. Hartelijk bedankt ! Socio-legal studies at the VVI not only reminds one of the founding fathers who received their legal education under Van Vollenhoven's own supervision at this campus, but Leiden University also teaches a moral commitment and looks at science from a perspective of human liberation, as a true Praesidium Libertatis (Bastion of Freedom).

Lastly, a thanks to my family for their unceasing support. My parents and parents in law, you all have remained supportive and really important, even if from far away, looking after my children whom I had to leave for many years for this study. For my children, Azrilhanif, Hanizza, and Azmifadhil: it has been difficult to leave you and thus spend less time together. It is hard for me to imagine how difficult it has been for you without a father being present to look after you in the homeland. However, you are all great and brilliant children, and you may consider this as a prayer that someday you will do better than your father and mother. Above all others is my wife, Movita Hidayati. Without her love, dedication and understanding I would never have brought this study to a successful end. Completing of this dissertation was nothing compared to her tireless struggle to educate and take care of the family, and even continue to provide all what I needed for the study process. Alhamdulillah, thank you for this Allah.

Hopefully, this socio-legal study of freedom of the press will contribute to the development of legal and socio-legal scholarship in Indonesia, and can be used as a tool to struggle for freedom, human rights and democracy in Indonesia. As I believe, "Freedom of the press is not merely a matter of democracy, but also a matter of human civilization in the manifestation of the nation and the state!" [Wuluhan, July 6, 2014].

Table of Contents

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	V
GLOSSARY	XIII
1 PRESS FREEDOM: INTRODUCTION, THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK, AND RESEARCH APPROACH	1
1.1. Introduction	1
1.1.1. Research Questions	1
1.1.2. Academic Background	3
1.2. Theoretical Framework	4
1.2.1. Socio-Legal Study	4
1.2.2. Freedom of Expression	5
1.2.3. Press Freedom as Freedom of Expression	6
1.2.4. Theories of the Press	7
1.2.5. Press: Freedom and Limitation from a Normative Perspective	11
1.2.6. Press Freedom, Democracy and Rule of Law	14
1.3. Research Approach and Methodology	17
1.3.1. Structure of the Book	20
2 CONSTITUTIONAL IDEAS, FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION AND PRESS FREEDOM	23
2.1. Introduction	23
2.2. Freedom of Expression in BPUPKI and PPKI Sessions	24
2.3. Freedom of Expression in the 1949 Federal Constitution and UUDS 1950 Draft	30
2.4. Freedom of Expression in the Konstituante Council Sessions (1956-1959)	34
2.5. Transition to the New Order: The Absence of Constitutional Change (1959-1998)	37
2.6. Debates during the Constitutional Amendment Process (1999-2002)	38
2.7. Conclusion: Constitutionalism and Freedom of Expression	43
3 FROM THE VOC TO THE END OF GUIDED DEMOCRACY: PRESS FREEDOM IN LEGISLATION	45
3.1. Introduction	45
3.2. The Netherlands Indies and the Japanese Occupation	46
3.2.1. The VOC Administration	46

3.2.2.	The Dutch Constitution of 1848 and the Government Regulation for the Netherlands-Indies (Regerings Reglement) of 1854	47
3.2.3.	Drukpersreglement (1856)	47
3.2.4.	Press and Ethical Policies	49
3.2.5.	Haatzaai Artikelen (1914)	52
3.2.6.	The Persbreidel Ordonnantie (1931)	54
3.2.7.	The Press and the Japanese	57
3.3.	Post-Independence	60
3.3.1.	1945-1949	60
3.3.2.	1950-1957	64
3.4.	Guided Democracy and The Decline of Press Freedom (1957-1965)	67
3.4.1.	National Press Political Manifesto	72
3.4.2.	Ten Restrictive Regulations	74
3.5.	Conclusion	82
4	PRESS FREEDOM FROM THE EARLY NEW ORDER TO THE SBY ADMINISTRATION	87
4.1.	Introduction	87
4.2.	From Hope of Restoration of the Rule of Law to Repression	87
4.3.	'Press Responsibility' and 'Pancasila Press'	91
4.4.	A 'Bureaucratic-Authoritarian State' and the Press	96
4.5.	Discourse and Streamlining Organisations as Sources of Control	101
4.6.	'Responsible Freedom' According to the New Order	103
4.7.	Reformasi	111
4.8.	Turning Point of Press Freedom, From Abdurahman Wahid to Megawati	116
4.9.	Surplus Freedom of the Press? The Press under the SBY Administration	120
4.10.	Physical Attacks on the Press	129
4.11.	Conclusion	138
5	PRESS FREEDOM AND CRIMINAL LAW	141
5.1.	Introduction	141
5.2.	A Few General Notes on Press Criminal Law	141
5.3.	The Haatzaai-Artikelen	147
5.3.1.	Haatzaai Cases Prior to 1998	149
5.3.2.	Haatzaai Cases Post-Soeharto: Rakyat Merdeka Online (2006)	150
5.3.3.	The End of the Haatzaai-Artikelen?	152
5.4.	Opprobrium or Insult (penghinaan/pencemaran nama baik)	153
5.4.1.	Against the President and Vice President	15

5.4.2.	Against the King or Heads of Friendly Countries and Representatives of Foreign Countries	158
5.4.3.	Against State Institutions (Public Institutions)	159
5.4.4.	Against Person/Public	164
5.4.5.	Iwan Piliang vs. Alvin Lie on Cyber Defamation (2008)	170
5.4.6.	Conclusion	172
5.5.	Spreading False News	173
5.5.1.	Sinar Pagi (1980-1982)	174
5.5.2.	Berita Buana (1989)	177
5.5.3.	Tomy Winata v. Tempo (2003)	178
5.5.4.	Upi Asmaradhana (2008)	182
5.6.	Violating Public Decency: Selera Hakim	183
5.6.1.	Varia Baru (1971)	186
5.6.2.	Matra Magazine (1999)	187
5.6.3.	Playboy Magazine (2006)	189
5.7.	Conclusion: The Decriminalisation of the Press?	193
6	PRESS FREEDOM AND PRIVATE LAW	201
6.1.	Introduction	201
6.2.	Private Law, Public Interest and Press Freedom	201
6.3.	Tort Law and Insult in Indonesia's Civil Law	202
6.4.	Procedural Aspects: Press Council and Civil Court Mechanisms	205
6.5.	'Pencemaran Nama Baik' (Insult and Defamation): Lawsuits against the Press	207
6.5.1.	Libel Suits before the Enactment of the 1999 Press Law (40/1999)	208
6.5.2.	Lawsuits after the Enactment of the 1999 Press Law	212
6.6.	Intimidation through Lawsuits	230
6.6.1.	Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation (SLAPPs)	231
6.6.2.	Unjustifiable Lawsuits against Press Freedom (ULAP)	233
6.7.	Conclusion	238
7	PRESS FREEDOM AND ADMINISTRATIVE COURT REVIEW	241
7.1.	Introduction	241
7.2.	Administrative Court Review	242
7.3.	Administrative Law Cases Concerning Press Freedom prior to Administrative Court Review	242
7.4.	Administrative Court Review of Press Bans	244
7.4.1.	Goenawan Mohamad v. Ministry of Information	2444

7.4.2.	Developments regarding Administrative Court Review after 1999	249
7.4.3.	Radio Era Baru v Minister of Communication and Information	250
7.4.4.	Radio Era Baru v General Director of Post and Telecommunication (GDPT)	252
7.4.5.	Analysis of the REB cases	254
7.5.	RCTI v KPI	257
7.6.	Conclusion	261
8	CONCLUSION	263
8.1.	Introduction	263
8.2.	Press Freedom in Indonesia: An Overview	264
8.3.	Freedom at Present	267
8.3.1.	The Constitution and the Press Law	268
8.3.2.	Actors Limiting Press Freedom	269
8.4.	Indonesian Press Law: Legal Debates and Press Freedom Theory	272
8.4.1.	Studies on Press Law	272
8.4.2.	Indonesia and Theories of the Press	274
8.4.3.	Legal Uncertainty and Uncertainty	275
8.4.4.	Avoiding the State Legal System for Protection	277
8.4.5.	ULAP as an Oppressive Strategy	277
8.5.	Recommendations and Suggestions for Further Research	278
8.5.1.	Recommendations	278
8.5.2.	Suggestions for Further Research	281
	SUMMARY	283
	SAMENVATTING	291
	REFERENCES	299
	LIST OF LEGISLATION AND REGULATIONS	311
	LIST OF COURT DECISIONS	317
	INTERVIEWS AND/OR EMAIL COMMUNICATION	319
	CURRICULUM VITAE	321

Glossary

Advies commissie zedelijkheidswetgeving	Advisory Commission on Decency Legislation (the Netherlands)
AJI	Aliansi Jurnalis Independen or Independent Journalists Alliance
Algemeen objectief begrip	General objective concept
ALM	Anugerah Langkat Makmur Inc.
Amicus curiae	Friends of the court
Ampera	Amanat Penderitaan Rakyat or the ‘message of the people’s suffering’
ARTICLE 19	London-based NGO for freedom of expression
Audi et alteram partem	Legal principle of hearing the other side or party
BFO	Bijeenkomst voor Federaal Overleg , the group of representatives of those provinces of the Netherlands-Indies who were not (yet) part of the Republic of Indonesia during the Revolution (1945-1959)
BL	Broadcasting Law (Law 32/2002)
BPHN	Badan Pembinaan Hukum Nasional , or National Law Development Agency, part of the Ministry of Law and Human Rights
BPS	Badan Pendukung Soekarnoisme or the Body for the Support/Diffusion of Soekarnoism
BPUPKI	Badan Penyelidik Usaha Persiapan Kemerdekaan Indonesia , or the Investigating Committee for Preparing Indonesia’s Independence, a Japanese-organised committee, which was to support independence in Indonesia
BW	Burgerlijk Wetboek (Civil Code)
CPJ	The Committee to Protect Journalists, a US-based organisation for press freedom

CPM	Military Police Corps
CYMA Inc	Cipta Yasa Multi Usaha Inc.
Dekret Presiden	The Presidential Decree of 5 July 1959
Dewan Pers	Press Council
DPD	Dewan Perwakilan Daerah , or Regional Representative Council
DPKN	Djawatan Pengawas Keamanan Negara or Intelligence Services under the Police Corps
DPKN-DKN	Djawatan Kepolisian Negara Bagian Dinas Pengawasan Keselamatan Negara or State Police Security Monitoring Agency
Dewan Perencanaan Nasional	National Planning Council
Dewan Stabilisasi Politik dan Keamanan	Council for Political and Security Stabilisation
EIT Law	Electronic Information and Transaction Law (Law 11/2008)
Elsam	Lembaga Studi dan Advokasi Masyarakat , a human rights NGO
Exceptie obscurum libellum	An objection that states that the plaintiff filed an unclear lawsuit
Exceptie iurium litis consortium	Exception on the basis of the plaintiff only addressing particular defendants
Exceptie error in persona	Exception on the basis of the lawsuit addressing the wrong defendants
FDR	Front Demokrasi Rakyat or the People's Democratic Front
Fitnah	Slander, also closely related to the general concept of defamation
FPI	Front Pembela Islam , or the Front of Defenders of Islam, a Muslim fundamentalist vigilante
GDPT	General Directorate of Post and Telecommunication
Grondrechten	Fundamental rights
Haatzaai-artikelen	Hatred sowing articles

Hak jawab	Right to reply
Hak koreksi	Right to correction
HGB	Hak Guna Bangunan , or a property status, entitlement to construct and to own buildings or other structures over the land
HPL	Hak Pengelolaan , or a property status, only granted to government institutions and state (national/local)-owned companies for developing public facilities
IPI	International Press Institute, based in Vienna
IPP	Izin Penyelenggaraan Penyiaran , Broadcasting Permit
ISR	Ijin Stasiun Radio , or Radio Station Permit
Judex facti	The authority to examine the facts and evidence of a particular case, in Indonesian law this is held by the District Court and the High Court
Judex juris	The authority to examine only the application of the law (in practice the Supreme Court in cassation)
Kabinet Ampera	Kabinet Amanat Penderitaan Rakyat , or Cabinet of The Message of the People's Suffering (Ampera Cabinet)
Kapolda	Kepala Polisi Daerah , Provincial Police Commander
Keppres	Keputusan Presiden , Presidential Decision
KJTKP	Koalisi Jurnalis Tolak Kriminalisasi Pers , Journalist Coalition Refusing Press Criminalisation
KNIP	Komite Nasional Indonesia Pusat or the Central National Indonesian Committee
Kode Etik Jurnalistik (KEJ)	Press Code of Ethics
Kodim	Komando Daerah Militer , Military Command Office at District Level
KOMDAK	Komando Daerah Angkatan Kepolisian or District Police Command Office

Konstituante	The Constitutional Council, was officially formed on 10 November 1956 and held meetings for almost two and a half years. As mandated by Article 134 of the 1950 Constitution, the Konstituante together with the government, were in charge of drafting a new constitution. It was elected at the same time as Parliament during the general elections of 1955.
KontraS	The Commission for Disappearances and Victims of Violence
Kopkamtib	Komando Operasi Pemulihan Keamanan dan Ketertiban , Command for the Restoration of Security and Order
KPI	Komisi Penyiaran Indonesia , or Indonesian Broadcasting Commission; at the regional level it is named KPID ( Komisi Penyiaran Indonesia Daerah )
KUHP	Kitab Undang-Undang Hukum Pidana (Penal Code)
LAC	Law on Administrative Courts (5/1986, amended by 9/2004 and 51/2009)
Laksus Pangkopkamtibda Jaya dan Sekitarnya	Special Task Force, Command for the Restoration of Security and Order for Djakarta Raya and surroundings
LBH Pers	Lembaga Bantuan Hukum Pers or Press Legal Aid Institution
Lex specialis derogat legi generali	Generally accepted as a technique of interpretation in solving legal cases when dealing with two or more conflicting norms in a particular case, meaning that a specific rule should be prioritised over a more general one
Lex suprema	Law is 'supreme' when it concerns cases, other laws are only supplementary to it
Malari	Political riots in 1974 known as the Fifteenth of January Riots
Manipol (-USDEK)	Manipol was the Political Manifesto set forth in Soekarno's August 17, 1959, Independence Day speech, and USDEK was an acronym for the 1945 Constitution, Indonesian Socialism, Guided Democracy, Guided Economy, and Indonesian Identity

Manipulasi Pers National	Bringing the National Press under the Political Manifesto, during Guided Democracy
Melanggar kesopanan/ kesusilaan	Violating Public Decency
Menghasut	Incitement
Menyiarkan kabar bohong	Spreading false news
MIPPA	Masyarakat Indonesia Peminat Pers Alternatif or Alternative Press Interest Indonesian Society
MKGR	Mutual Assistance Families Society, an NGO closely related to the Golkar Party
MMI	Majelis Mujahiddin Indonesia or Indonesian Mujahiddin Council
MOFS	Monitoring Office of Frequency Spectrum
MPPI	Masyarakat Pers dan Penyiar Indonesia , or the Indonesian Press and Broadcasting Society
MPR	Majelis Permusyawaratan Rakyat , or People's Consultative Assembly
MPRS	Majelis Permusyawaratan Rakyat Sementara or People's Provisional Consultative Assembly
Nasakom	Nasionalisme, Agama, Komunism , or Nationalism, Religion, Communism
Nawaksara	Originally from Sanskrit which means 'nine statements', the title of President Soekarno's speech for MPRS (Parliament) on 22 June 1966
Niet ontvankelijk verklaard	Dismissal of a case
NKRI	Negara Kesatuan Republik Indonesia or Unitary State of the Republic Indonesia
OAS	Organisation of American States
OSCE	Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe
Osamu Seiri	The Japanese military law
P3SPS	Pedoman Perilaku Penyiaran dan Standar Program Siaran , or Guidelines for Broadcasting Manners and Broadcasting Program Standards KPI Decision Letter 009/SK/KPI/8/2004

PAN	Partai Amanat Nasional or National Mandate Party
Pancasila	Five moral principles, as philosophical basis of Indonesian life and society
Panitia Hukum Dasar	Committee of Fundamental Law
Panitia Kecil Perancang Undang-Undang Dasar	Small Committee of Constitutional Drafters, chaired by Soepomo
Panitia Undang-Undang Dasar	Constitutional Committee
Pantja Tunggal	The Single Five Pillars as the basis for important state institutions (following the Manipol ideology)
PBHI	Perhimpunan Bantuan Hukum dan Hak Asasi Manusia Indonesi , or the Indonesian Legal Aid and Human Rights Association
PDI-P	Partai Demokrasi Indonesia Perjuangan or the Struggle for Indonesian Democracy Party
Pencemaran nama baik	Degrading reputation, also closely related to the general concept of defamation
Penerangan Massa	Mass Information
Penghinaan	Insult
Peninjauan kembali	A review by the Supreme Court on the basis of new evidence ( novum )
Peperti	Penguasa Perang Tertinggi , Highest War Authority
Persbreidel	Press banning
Pertamina	The state oil company
PIDL	Public Information Disclosure Law (14/2008)
PKB	Partai Kebangkitan Bangsa , or the Nation's Awakening Party
PKI	Partai Komunis Indonesia , or Indonesian Communist Party
POP	Peragaan, Olahraga, Perfilman /Style, Sport and Film, a magazine
PPM	Pemuda Panca Marga , a paramilitary organisation
Prematuur exceptie	Exception because a case is brought too early

PSII	Partai Sjarikat Islam Indonesia , or Indonesian Islamic Association Party
PWI	Indonesian Journalists Association
RCTI	Rajawali Citra Televisi Indonesia , a national television corporation
RAPP	Riau Andalan Pulp and Paper, Inc. (PT)
REB	Radio Suara Harapan Semesta corporation (or also known as Radio Era Baru ) is a local radio based in Batam, Riau. REB is the local affiliate of Sound of Hope Radio Network
Reformasi	'Reform,' refers to the motto of domestic opposition. It is also known as an era after Soeharto's authoritarian regime
Regeringsreglement	The Netherlands-Indies Constitution
Rekonvensi	Counter claim
RIS	Negara Republik Indonesia Serikat , or the United States of Indonesia (USI)
RRI	Radio Republik Indonesia or Republic of Indonesia Radio
RSF	Reporters Sans Frontières or Reporters Without Borders
RSMS	Radio Suara Marga Semesta or well know as Radio Sing
Satgas Mass Media Laksus Pangkoptibda Jaya	The Mass Media Task Force Unit of Command for the Restoration of Security and Order in Jakarta
SEMA	Surat Edaran Mahkamah Agung or the Supreme Court Circular Letter
SIC	Surat Ijin Cetak or printing permit
SIT	Surat Ijin Terbit or publishing permit
SIUPP	Surat Izin Usaha Penerbitan Pers or Letter of Press Publication Permit
SLAPP	Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation
SOB	The Emergency Ordinance, literally State of War and Siege Ordinance, Regeling op de Staat van Oorlog en Beleg

SP3	Surat Penghentian Penyelidikan Perkara or Letter of Discontinuation for Investigating a Case, released by the police
SPS	Serikat Penerbit Surat kabar , or Newspapers Publisher Association. Since 2011, the name was changed into Serikat Perusahaan Pers (SPS Indonesia) or Press Company Association
STT	Surat Tanda Terdaftar or Registered Signed Letter
Subjektief eerbaaerheidsgevoel	Subjective feeling of decency
Supersemar	Instruction Letter of 11 March 1966
Surat Pembaca	A letter to the editor
Tim Pembina Pers Kampus Mahasiswa Tingkat Nasional	The National Supervisory Team for University Student Press, established on 31 May 1980 by the Ministers of Education and Information
Tjatur Tunggal	Four institutions, these institutions were at three levels of regional government (provincial, regency and city), comprised of the provincial governor (or regent or mayor), local army commander, local police chief and local public prosecutor, started in 1964
UDHR	The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, signed in 1948
ULAP	Unjustifiable Lawsuit against Press Freedom
UN	United Nations
UNCI	United Nations Commission for Indonesia , the organisation established by the United Nations
UUDS	UUD Sementara Republik Indonesia or the Provisional Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia, was formally enacted by Law No. 7 of 1950, State Sheet of RIS 56/1950
VOC	Verenigde Oost-Indische Compagnie , Dutch East India Company
Wayang	Folk puppetry
WvS. Ned. Ind.	The Penal Code for the Netherlands-Indies ( Wetboek van Strafrecht voor Nederlandsch-Indië )
YLBHI	Yayasan Lembaga Bantuan Hukum Indonesia , or the Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation