Systems biology for evaluating system-based medicine

Thesis, Leiden University, 2012

ISBN: 978-90-74538-77-0

Cover: Lotus leaves in Daming Lake, a picture taken by Dr. Shiyu Zhou. Lotus leaf belongs to Chinese herbal medicine. It is the beautiful Chinese element and also the nice symbol of human life. It grows from the mud (sub-conscious) to become an open flower (conscious life). This picture contains information of a small ecosystem — lotus leaf, ladybugs on lotus leaf, sticks, unknown microorganisms under the bubbles, water and so on.
