

Universiteit
Leiden

The Netherlands

Leading from the back : Roy Wilkins and his leadership of the NAACP, 1955-1968

Ryan, Y.

Citation

Ryan, Y. (2009, November 25). Leading from the back : Roy Wilkins and his leadership of the NAACP, 1955-1968. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/14434>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/14434>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

LEADING FROM THE BACK

THE LEADERSHIP OF ROY WILKINS, 1955-1968

Yvonne Ryan

Leading from the Bank: The Leadership of Roy Wilkins, 1955-1968

Proefschrift

ter verkrijging van

de graad van doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden op gezag van Rector Magnificus prof mr. P. F van der Heijden volgens besluit van het college voor promoties

te verdedigen op Wednesday, 25 November 2009

klokke 3pm uur

door

Yvonne Ryan

Geboren te Wrexham, UK.

Promotor: Prof. dr. A Fairclough

Referent: Prof. Brian Ward

Overige leden promototiecommissie:

Dr. Eduard van de Bilt

Prof. Leo Lucassen

Dr. Chris Quispel

Prof. Robert Ross

Dr Marlou Schrover

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
Chapter One
“I Never Wanted to be White”	24
Chapter Two
Treading Water	71
Chapter Three
Master of Power	96
Chapter Four
Politics and Protest	156
Chapter Five
All the Way with LBJ	231
Chapter Six
The Crisis of Victory	278
Conclusion	319
Bibliography	333

Copyright © 2009 by Yvonne Ryan.

The cover image was created at http: www.wordle.net

Printed by: Ridderprint bv, Ridderkerk

Acknowledgements

The writing of a work such as this is largely a solitary exercise but, as with most endeavors, has been reliant on the help of others to bring it to fruition. In particular, the encouragement of Professor Adam Fairclough, who has guided me through the complexities of the civil rights movement with patience, kindness and wisdom over the past seven years. I am eternally grateful that a scholar of his reputation was willing to give a rather unconventional student the opportunity to indulge her conviction that there must be something more to say about Roy Wilkins.

I am grateful too for the patience and support of my parents, Peter and Shirley Ryan, my sister, Nikki, and my friends in the face of lamentations, frequent moments of despair and occasional moments of joy at the completion of each stage of this work. They all now know far more about the American civil rights movement than any would either have expected or wished but still profess and enthusiastic interest whenever the subject is mentioned.

This study relies heavily on the magnificent archives available in American collections, especially the Library of Congress, the Lyndon B Johnson Library, the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center at Howard University and the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library at Yale University. The dedicated staff at each of these institutions was patient and responsive and I owe a debt of gratitude for their help. Finally, I am also grateful for funding offered by the Lyndon B Johnson Presidential Library and the British Association for American Studies. Thank you to both institutions for their generous grants that allowed me to complete research that may not otherwise have been possible.

