CURRICULUM VITAE

Fei Huang was born in Zhijin county, Guizhou province of the People's Republic of China on July 12, 1982. She specialized in Landscape Studies, Material Culture, Historical Anthropology and Studies of Southwest China.

She earned her BA of Art history from Sun-Yat sen University in 2005 and enrolled in the Master programme leading to the Ph.D programme in the Center of Historical Anthropology in Sun-Yat sen University in the same year. Between 2008 and 2012, she conducted Ph. D research at the Leiden Institute for Area Studies (LIAS), with an award from the State Scholarship Fund of the China Scholarship Council (CSC) between 2008 and 2009, and supported by the European Foundation for Chinese Music Research (CHIME) between 2009 and 2012.

In 2005-2008, she assisted in the collection, categorization, and digitalization of the primary documents and data in the British Library's Endangered Archives Programme in Yunnan province, China. She also coordinated a two week summer workshop in 2008 for graduate students in Liupilang, an ethnic Yi village in Yunnan. Additional experience includes working as an editorial assistant for academic publications in the period 2009 – 2012.
