Curriculum Vitae

Terrill Brian Schrock was born on August 12, 1980, in the small, southern railroad town of Atmore, Alabama, U.S.A. Though much of his childhood was spent in the American South, he also lived with his family among Bantu peoples on the shores of Lake Victoria in Tanzania, between 1987-89 and 1995-97. From 2000-2001, Terrill took part in a study-abroad program in Aktau, Kazakhstan, where he studied Kazakh and taught English. By 2003, he earned a BA degree in French and Russian languages from the University of South Alabama. In 2007, he completed an MA in Applied Linguistics from the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics in Grand Prairie, Texas. While working as truck-loader for UPS and an intern at the commercial translation firm RussTech Inc., Terrill joined Wycliffe Bible Translators and SIL in 2004. In 2008, he and his wife Amber were assigned by SIL to the Ik project in northeastern Uganda where they have been since, working in language development and healthcare. They are now the proud adoptive parents of two Ik/Karimojong girls, Lemu Immaculate and Kaloyang Mercy, and live with them by Timu Forest in Ikland at the edge of the Rift Valley.
