Curriculum Vitae

Kyoung-Hee Park was born on 9 May 1972 in Pusan, South Korea. She received her BA degree in Japanese Literature from Sungshin Women's University in Seoul, and was awarded the MA degree on the influence of social transformation on the dietary changes in the twentieth-century Korea and Japan from Tokyo Kaseigakuin University, Japan, in 2005. After finishing a PhD programme at Ochanomizu University in Tokyo from 2005 to 2007, she came to Leiden University, the Netherlands, to conduct PhD research within the framework of the VIDI project 'Sustaining Total War: Militarization, Economic Mobilization and Social Change in Japan and Korea (1931-1953)' sponsored by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO) and coordinated by Prof. Katarzyna J. Cwiertka. This thesis is the result of the research.
