

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

The Dutch East India Company's tea trade with China, 1757-1781
Liu, Y.

Citation

Liu, Y. (2006, December 6). The Dutch East India Company's tea trade with China, 1757-1781. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/5421>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/5421>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

CURRICULUM VITAE

Liu Yong was born on 29 September 1974 in Xuanzhou City, Anhui Province, China. He studied History at Anhui University, and received his BA in 1998. Between 1998 and 2000 he studied at the Institute for South-east Asian Studies of Xiamen University, where he obtained his MA in History. In 2001, he became a student of the TANAP Project (Towards A New Age of Partnership: A Dutch-Asian-South African Historical Research Project) at Leiden University, the Netherlands. After completing the one-year Advanced Master's Programme organized by the CNWS (Research School of Asian, African, and Amerindian Studies), he was offered a place as a PhD candidate at the CNWS to carry out research on the Dutch East India Company's tea trade with China.

