Curriculum Vitae

Albertine Bloemendal (Amersfoort, 1984) received both her BA (2006) and MA (2008) in American Studies cum laude from the Radboud University in Nijmegen. She also studied a semester as an exchange student at Boston College and did an internship at the Political Department of the Netherlands Embassy in Washington D.C. In 2009 she won the Theodore Roosevelt American History Award for her MA thesis “Abraham Kuyper’s Road to the White House: How Kuyperian Thought Came to Influence American Welfare Reform.” After working for several years as a journalist, which she continued after the start of her PhD research in the fall of 2009, Albertine began working as a lecturer at Leiden University in 2013. Between June 2011 and June 2016, she was a board member of the Netherlands American Studies Association
