Thomas van Vroonhoven werd geboren op 27 juni 1984 in Den Haag. Zijn interesse in de klassieke taal en cultuur werd gewekt op het Dalton in Voorburg, waar hij in 2002 zijn diploma gymnasium behaalde (profiel C&M). Van 2002 tot 2011 studeerde hij aan de Universiteit Leiden, waar hij de bachelor- en mastergraad behaalde van de studies Wijsbegeerte (2002 – 2011) en Griekse en Latijnse Taal en Cultuur (2003 – 2011, cum laude). Van 2011 tot 2012 volgde hij de educatieve master Geesteswetenschappen aan het ICLON in Leiden en behaalde hij de eerstegraads lesbevoegdheid. Vanaf 2011 tot 2017 combineerde hij als buitenpromovendus het schrijven van het proefschrift met de functie van docent Grieks en Latijn in het voortgezet onderwijs. Daarnaast gaf hij verschillende cursussen in de rechtsfilosofie. Tijdens het promotietraject leidde het aanhoudende thema van de verhouding tussen wetenschap en filosofie tot een toegenomen belangstelling in de natuurwetenschap. Tot op heden is hij werkzaam als docent en studeert hij Technische Wiskunde aan de Technische Universiteit Delft.
