African Postal Heritage

APH Paper 22, part 1

Ton Dietz

British Central Africa, Nyasaland, and Malawi

January 2018

Introduction

Postage stamps and related objects are miniature communication tools, and they tell a story about cultural and political identities and about artistic forms of identity expressions. They are part of the world's material heritage, and part of history. Ever more of this postal heritage becomes available online, published by stamp collectors' organizations, auction houses, commercial stamp shops, online catalogues, and individual collectors. Virtually collecting postage stamps and postal history has recently become a possibility. These working papers about Africa are examples of what can be done. But they are work-in-progress! Everyone who would like to contribute, by sending corrections, additions, and new area studies can do so by sending an email message to the APH editor: Ton Dietz (dietzaj@asc.leidenuniv.nl). You are welcome!

Introduction

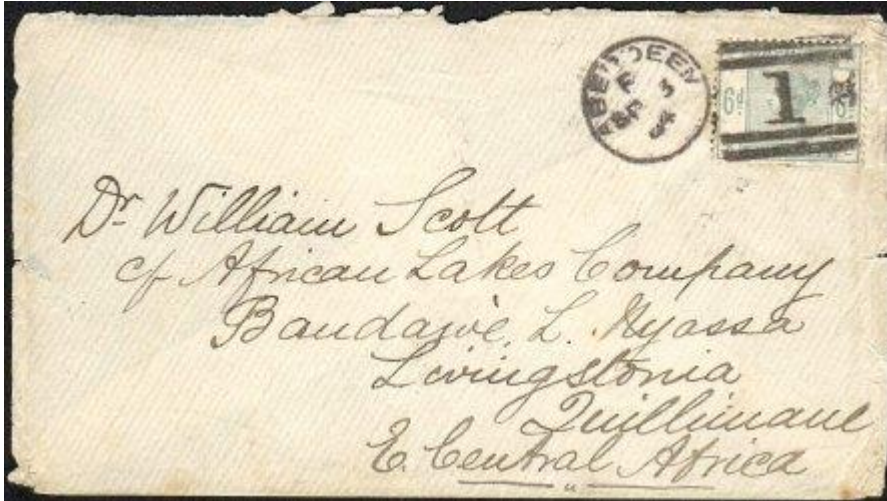

In 1891 Great Britain declared 'British Central Africa' a protectorat and started to issue postage stamps. In 1908 the Protectorate was renamed 'Nyasaland', and in 1953 it joined the postal territory of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. In 1963 there were 'Nyasaland' stamps again, and in the same year it became an autonomous area, followed by Independence (as 'Malaŵi') on 6 July 1964.

Three envelopes addressed to Dr or Mrs Scott are known to the Livingstonia Mission at Bandawe on Lake Nyasa . The first two were posted from Keith in Scotland on 6 November and 5 December 1883. Addressed c/o Jose M. Nunes who was the British Vice Consul at Quelimane. The third envelope (Illustrated above) was sent from Aberdeen Scotland, on 3 September 1884 addressed to Dr William Scott c/o The African Lakes Company . On 19 September 1883 Dr Laws welcomed Dr William Scott, his wife, the Reverend James Bain and Henry Drummond when they arrived at Bandawe onboard a lake steamer . During 1886 Dr Scott was invalided home. Letters sent by sea via Zanzibar and onto Quelimane in Portuguese East Africa. - Then via the Zambezi and Shire rivers and up Lake Nyasa to Bandawe . Some seven years before a Postal System was established in British Central Africa - The Postal Service became Operative in July 1891".
