NOTES ON PLACE AND PERSONAL NAMES

Concerning place names, I preferred to be consistent by using the best-known forms which appear in the Dutch and English sources throughout the book. However, sometimes I have used names which appear to me nearer to their original forms. For example, I have used ‘Dharmapatanam’ instead of its modern form ‘Dharmadam’, or ‘Dharmapatam’ which appears in Dutch and English sources. In general, I have reproduced the titles and personal names of the local people as they appear in Dutch manuscripts. But, occasionally I have favoured to use names and titles, about which I am certain, in their original forms. Instead of ‘Adersia’ or ‘Adji raja’ I have used ‘the Ali Raja’. Likewise, I preferred to use ‘Vazhunnavar’ instead of ‘Balnoor’.
