

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Java's last frontier : the struggle for hegemony of Blambangan, c. 1763-1813

Margana, S.

Citation

Margana, S. (2007, December 13). Java's last frontier : the struggle for hegemony of Blambangan, c. 1763-1813. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/12547>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/12547>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Java's Last Frontier:
The Struggle for Hegemony of Blambangan,
c. 1763-1813.

Cover background:
Babad Blambangan (KBG) 63
Perpustakaan Nasional (National Library), Jakarta.

JAVA'S LAST FRONTIER

The Struggle for Hegemony of Blambangan,
c.1763–1813.

Sri Margana

Universiteit Leiden

2007

JAVA'S LAST FRONTIER

The Struggle for Hegemony of Blambangan,
c.1763–1813.

Proefschrift
ter verkrijging van de graad van Doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van de Rector Magnificus, prof. mr. P.F. van der Heijden, volgens besluit van het College voor Promoties te verdedigen op donderdag 13 december 2007
klokke 15.00 uur

door
Sri Margana
geboren te Klaten – Indonesië
in 1969

Promotiecommissie:

Promotores:	prof. dr. J. L. Blussé van Oud-Alblas prof. dr. P. Boomgaard (UvA)
Referent:	dr. W. G. J. Rummelink (Japan-Nederland Instituut, Tokio)
Overige leden:	prof. dr. H. Schulte Nordholt (VU) prof. dr. B. Arps prof. dr. F.S. Gaastra dr. R. Raben (UU, NIOD Amsterdam)

CONTENTS

Acknowledgment	viii
Abbreviations	xi
Glossary	xii
List of Maps, Pictures and Illustrations	xiv
Introduction	1
Subject	2
Previous Research	8
The Sources	11
Structure	15
Chapter One: The Fall of Blambangan in 1768	17
Introduction	17
Between Myth and Reality: Blambangan in the Early Period	19
Blambangan in the Seventeenth Century	24
Blambangan under the Suzerainty of Buleleng and Mengwi (1697-1764)	29
The Cession of Java's Oostboek to the VOC	30
Two Plots of Unsolicited Invitation	32
The Motives for the Invasion	37
Free Trade in and around Bali Strait	42
Collaboration and Indigenous Assistance	45
Conclusion	50
Chapter Two: The Fate of Two Rebel Families in Java's Oostboek : The Fall of Malang and Lumajang in 1767	53
Introduction	53
Two Rebel Families	54
The Fall of Lumajang	56
The Fall of Malang	60
The End of Singasari and Raden Mas Rebellion	71
The Death of Malayakusuma	73
The 'Return' of Malayakusuma	74

Chapter Three: The Rebellion of Pangeran Wilis in Blambangan in 1768	79
Introduction	79
Creating a Legend: The Image of Wilis in Indonesian Literatures	80
The Return of Wilis	84
The Dutch Response	89
The Rebellion	94
Living in Exile: Wilis and the Balinese Connection	102
Anti-Balinese Sentiment at the Court of Blambangan	110
The Diaspora Connection	114
Conclusion	116
Chapter Four: Puputan Bayu : The Rebellion of the Pseudo-Willis in Blambangan 1771-1773	119
Introduction	119
Setting: Blambangan as Religious Frontier	121
Sutanagara and the Islamization of Blambangan	125
The Return of the King	131
The Death of the King	133
Epidemic and Famine	137
The Fall of Bayu	139
The Origin of the Uprising	140
The Oppression	142
Personal Dispute	143
The Ideology of Rebellion	145
Conclusion	149
Chapter Five: From Blambangan to Banyuwangi: The Administrative Change and Population in Blambangan	151
Introduction	151
The Fate of Jaksanagara	151
Problem of Leadership	153
Administrative Reorganization	160
Banyuwangi: The New Capital City of Blambangan	164
The Population	169
Conclusion	176

Chapter Six: Nusa Barong Aflame: Free Trading and Resistance on the Island of Evil, 1772-1800	177
Introduction	177
The Trade Network in and around the Bali Strait up to 1767	178
The Rise of Nusa Barong	183
The False Tumenggung : Internal Dispute	188
Nusa Barong Expedition, 1777	190
The Demolition of Nusa barong	193
The Story of Captain Buton	196
The Decline of Mandarese Community in Blambangan	206
Conclusion	208
 Chapter Seven: Kepruk Cina : The Decline of the Chinese Era in Java's Oosthoek , 1770 - 1813	 210
Introduction	210
Regional Development in Java's Oosthoek up to 1800	212
Daendels' Experiment and its Legacy	219
The Probolinggo Uprising	220
The Origins of the Probolinggo Uprising	227
The Uprising of Arya Galedak in Bondowoso	235
Conclusion	236
 Conclusion	 239
Appendices	247
Bibliography	267
Samenvatting	275
Curriculum Vitae	285

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I must begin by expressing my gratitude to all the people who were involved in the organization and running of the TANAP (Towards a New Age of Partnership) Project and the various organizations and institutes which supported it, most importantly CNWS (Research School of Asian, African, and Amerindian Studies), NWO (Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research), and the History Department of Leiden University.

To have the chance to study in the Netherlands was a dream of mine ever since I decided that my career would be to be a historian. Therefore it is very appropriate that I thank the three persons who introduced me to the Dutch academic world for the first time in 1998: Dr Thomas Lindblad, Professor Vincent Houben, and Professor Bambang Purwanto.

I am also very grateful to Dr H. E. Niemeijer who visited me in Yogyakarta to introduce me to the TANAP Project in 2000. My years of working in this project would never have been a success without the wonderful and unfailingly friendly assistance of Drs Ilonka Ooms, Drs Cynthia Viallé, and Mrs Marijke Wissen-van-Staden (TANAP Secretary).

Drs Yolanda Spaans, Drs René Wezel, Dr Tom Harmsen and Dr Hugo s'Jacob will always have my gratitude as the people who taught me how to accomplish the 'mission impossible': namely reading and understanding Dutch and Dutch palaeography. I owe them all my warmest thanks

TANAP was perhaps one of the biggest academic Asian-European cooperation projects ever established at a European University. It involved young historians from Europe, Asia and Africa. The social and academic interactions among my fellow TANAP members were a wonderful way for me to expand my knowledge of the academic world on three continents. I feel privileged to have been able to interact with them as my colleagues and fellow students and this is the right and proper place to say a very heartfelt 'thank you' all the members of this group: Dr Muridan Satrio Widjojo, Drs Bondan Kanumoyoso (Indonesia), Dr Alicia Schrikker (the Netherlands), Dr Mahesh Gopalan (India), Dr Anjana Singh (India), Dr Nirmal Devasiri (Sri Lanka), Dr Hoang Anh Tuan (Vietnam), Dr Chiu Hsin-hui (Taiwan), Ms Marné Strydom (South Africa), Drs Ricky Goedeman (South Africa), Dr Kwee Hui Kian (Singapore), Dr Atsushi Ota (Japan), Dr Ryuto Shimada (Japan), Dr Bhawan Ruangsilp (Thailand), Dr Liu Yong (China), Drs Chris Nierstrasz (the Netherlands), Ms Sher Banu (Singapore), Drs Yusak Soleiman and his wife, Ms Ida Indawati Khouw (Indonesia), Dr Binu John (India), Dr Ghulam Nadri and his wife, Dr Karuna Sharma.

I would like to express my special gratitude to Dr Radin Fernando, Dr Gerrit Knaap, and Professor A. B. Lopian who assisted me in formulating my subject of research. I also feel privileged to have received stimulating comments from Professor M. C. Ricklefs when I visited him in Singapore in 2006.

This dissertation would never have been finished without the great assistance of Mrs Rosemary Robson who took care of the English editing. She has also taken on the role as my Ibu, and enveloped me in her genuine motherly care.

I am extremely grateful to Ms Rini Hogewoning and Ms Josephine Schrama for their unfailing help and hospitality during my visits to the KITLV library. I am also thankful for the great assistance of Drs Langgeng Sulistyobudi and all the staffmembers of the Kantor Arsip Nasional Republik Indonesia, Jakarta, and of the Nationaal Archief, The Hague.

I met Alexander Claver and Arjan Veering in 1997 when they came to Yogyakarta as participants in the 'Summer Course of Indonesia Modern Economic History' organized by Leiden University and Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta. I am very happy that they have agreed to act as my paranymphs. I am also grateful to Alex for his translation of my summary in Dutch.

I was able to enjoy the years I spent in the Netherlands because of intensive and warm social interactions with the Indonesian community there. I would like to thank above all Sardjio Mintardjo and Kuslan Budiman who have taken care of me as a Bapak and taught me a great lesson in altruism through attitude rather than words. I also share beautiful memories with the members of Condorhorst flat 140 and they must not be overlooked in my expressions of thanks. They were Muridan Widjojo, Helena Souissa, Nova Christina, Hasto Nugroho, Maskur Rahmat, Shiskha Prabawaningtyas, Arbainsya, Didi Kwartanada, Agus Suwignjo, Johana Nayoan, Farid Wajidi and Pujo Semedi. I also enjoyed a good partnership with members of the Indonesian Student Association in the Netherlands: Michael Putrawenas, Ariadi Nugroho, Tita Alissa Listyowardojo, Oktavia Hendrawati, Angela Anggraini, Tri Laksmana, and many others.

I would like to express my gratitude to the staff and diplomats of the Indonesian Embassy in The Hague for their service and co-operation: former Ambassador Muhammad Yusuf, Jauhari Oratmangun, Muhammad Muhajir, Siswo Pramono, Rumondang Harahap and Rina Bergsma.

During my study in the Netherlands I was also given tremendous moral support by the members of the Department of History of Gadjah Mada University and to them I would like to express my deepest gratitude. They are Professor Djoko Suryo, Professor Joko Soekiman, Professor Soegijanto Padmo, Professor Suhartono, Dr Harlem Siahaan, Drs A. Adaby Darban SU, Dra Nuraini Setyawati MHum, Drs Andri Nurtjahyo L., Drs Machmoed Effendhie SU, Drs Arif Akhyat MA, Drs Julianto Ibrahim MHum, Dra Mutiah Amini MA, Baha'Uddin MA, Abdul Wakhid MA. My special thanks must be expressed to the Dean of the Faculty of Cultural Sciences, Professor Syamsul Hadi, for his great support and his effort in providing financial assistance for my final year in the Netherlands.

Finally, I would like to enshrine my inexpressible gratitude to my wife, Umi, for her unstinting love and support. She has patiently acted as a single parent for almost six years raising our son, Danan, during my absence from home.

ABBREVIATIONS

ANRI	Arsip Nasional Republik Indonesia, Jakarta
BKI	Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van Nederlandsch-Indië
EIC	English East India Company
ed.	Editor or edited
eds	editors
IG	Indische Gids
JAS	Journal of Asian Studies
JMBRAS	Journal of The Malayan Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society
KITLV	Koninkelijk Instituut voor Taal-, Land- en Volkenkunde, Leiden
lb	Dutch pound(s)
MAS	Modern Asia Studies
NA	Nationaal Archief, The Hague
TANAP	Towards A New Age of Partnership
TBG	Tijdschrift voor Indische taal-, land- en volkenkunde
TNI	Tijdschrift voor Neêrlandsch Indië
VBG	Verhandelingen van het Bataviaasch Genootschap
VOC	Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie , Dutch East India Company
Vol., vols	Volume, volumes

GLOSSARY

acte van verband	Company contracts which regents were required to sign at the commencement of their appointment
adipati	Title of Blambangan king
batur	Labourer, follower and / or load-bearer
bupati	regent
cacab	Taxation unit used in Java, the number of persons per cacab varied depending on the fertility of the land
dagregister	Journal, daily written account kept by Company personnel of a task for which they were commissioned
demang	Village head
duit	Dutch copper doit
gezaghebber	The person-in-charge, in the text, the term refers to the highest-in-command in the Company's office in Surabaya, overseeing the administration of its subordinates office in eastern Javanese region
kampung	Settlement
kepeng	Minor coin in use in early modern Java
kraman	Malcontents or rebels
kramat	Holy grave
kraton	Court
kyai	Religious teacher
landraad	Council of justice
last	Measurement of vessel's cargo capacity – 4,000 lb or 32 pikul , measurement of rice – 24.5 p
lb	Dutch pound (pond), 0.495 kg
logie	Lodgings, factory, trading-post
lurah	Village head
mancanagara	Outer-lying regencies of the Mataram realm in Java
mantri	In the context of Blambangan, a middle-ranking functionary serving under the king
memorie van overgave	Memorandum submitted by Dutch governors and commanders for their successors
nabkoda	Captain on board a Malay or Chinese junk
ola	Palm leaf, used as writing material
opperhoofd	Chief of a Dutch settlement
onderkoopman	Junior merchant
opperkoopman	Chief merchant
paduvakan	Type of Makassarrese vessel
pancalan	Type of Malay vessel
pasar	market
patih	First minister at n the Blambangan court
penningen	Dutch pennies
piagem	Letter or certificate indicating leasehold
pisis	A coin of small denomination used in early modern Java

pikul	A man's load, approximately 62.5 kg
plakkat	Proclamation or decree issued by the Dutch Government
pusaka	Royal heirloom
rangga	Official subordinate to the regent
rijksdaalder	Coin, 1 rijksdaalder = about 3 guilders
sultan	From 1755, ruler of the Sultanate of Yogyakarta
susuhunan	Ruler of the Mataram empire in Central and East Java, title used by the King of Blambangan, Tawangalun died 1692.
syahbandar	Port or harbour master, leaseholder or tax-farmer of the rights to collect taxes on all commercial goods entering or leaving the town by land or sea
tandak	A Javanese female dancer
tapa	Holy man, ascetic

LIST OF MAPS, PICTURES AND ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Map of the Capital City of Blambangan from 1596-1774	22
2. The Grave of Tawangalun in Macan Putih, Banyuwangi Pic.2004)	28
3. Umpak Songo in Muncar Banyuwangi	30
4. Map of Java's Oosthoek and Bali	32
5. The Governor-General in Batavia discusses the unsolicited invitation from the King of Blambangan (Coll. KBG 63, National Library. Jakarta)	37
6. Tumenggung Jayanegara, the Regent of Probolinggo during the expedition to Blambangan (Coll. KBG 63, National Library, Jakarta)	46
7. Dutch ships and vessel employed in the Blambangan Expedition 1767 (Coll. KBG 63, National Library, Jakarta)	48
8. In Surabaya, Governor of Semarang discussed the plan to attack Malang with the Gezaghebber and the Regent of Surabaya (Coll. KBG 63, National Library Jakarta)	58
9. Tropponegro and Gondelag are reading a letter in the company of a Tumenggung and Rangga (Coll. KBG 63, National Library Jakarta)	65
10. Dutch and Javanese coalition troops during the Malang Expedition (Coll. KBG 63, National Library Jakarta)	68
11. Grajagan Bay, in the south coast of Banyuwangi (Pic. 2003)	87
12. The Court of Mengwi, Bali (Pic. 2003)	104
13. The Beach of Seseh viewed from the front gate of Pangeran Pati's Grave in Seseh, Bali (Pic. 2003)	105
14. The Grave of Pangeran Pati in Seseh, Bali (Pic. 2003)	106
15. The House of the Jurukunci (Caretaker) of Pangeran Pati's Grave in Seseh, Bali (Pic. 2003)	108
16. The Remnant of the Court of Blambangan (Pic. 2003)	168
17. The Bay of Pampang in Muncar Banyuwangi (Pic. 2003)	180