

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Siam and the League of Nations : modernization, sovereignty, and multilateral diplomacy, 1920-1940

Hell, S.M.

Citation

Hell, S. M. (2007, October 31). Siam and the League of Nations : modernization, sovereignty, and multilateral diplomacy, 1920-1940. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/12395>

Version: Not Applicable (or Unknown)

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/12395>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Curriculum Vitae

Stefan Hell was born in Sindelfingen, Germany, on 25 June 1968. He obtained a Master's Degree in Modern History and Philosophy from Eberhard-Karls-Universität Tübingen, Germany, in 1996. For the past ten years Stefan has been working as a development and business consultant in Germany, Thailand, Italy, Malaysia and Vietnam, including work for the European Commission, Asian Development Bank, various Asian and European academic institutions, British Council, Asia-Europe Foundation and others. Since 2007, Stefan is based in Beijing, China, where he is managing the EU-China Managers Exchange and Training Programme on behalf of the European Commission. He has published various articles, book chapters and a monograph, has co-edited two volumes, and has presented a number of papers at academic conferences in Europe and Asia.