

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/18940> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation.

Author: Cai, Xiang-yu

Title: Christianity and gender in South-East China : the chaozhou missions (1849-1949)

Date: 2012-05-10

CURRICULUM VITAE

Cai Xiang-yu, was born on 9 September, 1981 in Chenghai of Guangdong Province, P.R.China. She received her primary and secondary schooling in Chenghai between 1988 and 2000. She started undergraduate education in 2000 at the Department of History, Sun Yat-sen University and received the B.A. degree in 2004. From 2005 to 2008, she studied full-time in the “MA leading to PhD” graduate program at the Department of History, Sun Yat-sen University. From September 2008 till November 2010, she studied under the co-supervision of Professor Leonard Blussé and Professor Heleen Murre-van den Berg in Leiden University. In February 2011, she was registered as a PhD student at the Department of History, Leiden University. She is now employed in the Canton Hongs’ Research Centre of Guangzhou University and focusing on the history of Christianity in the Chaozhou region in the late Qing and Republic periods, and the history of the Dutch East Indian Company in Canton, China.