

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <http://hdl.handle.net/1887/18984> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation.

Author: Kampen, Ukjese van

Title: History of Yukon first nations art

Date: 2012-05-23

The History of Yukon First Nations Art

The History of Yukon First Nations Art

PROEFSCHRIFT

ter verkrijging van de graad van Doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van de Rector Magnificus prof. mr. P.F. van der Heijden, volgens besluit van het College voor Promoties te verdedigen op woensdag 23 mei 2012

klokke 15.00 uur

door

Ukjese van Kampen

geboren te Whitehorse, Canada, in 1959

Promotiecommissie

Promotores:

Prof. Dr. M.E.R.G.N. Jansen

Prof. Dr. W.F.H. Adelaar

Overige leden:

Mw Prof. Dr. C.L. Hofman

Prof. Dr. W.J.L.M. van Damme

Mw. Dr. E.B. Carlin

Dr. P. Hovens (Museum Volkenkunde, Leiden)

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	Page 1
Acknowledgements	Page 5
Introduction	Page 7
The Question	Page 7
Personal Comments about the Research	Page 7
Start of a Personal Quest	Page 10
Yukon First Nations actions that lead to a lack of present day Visual Culture	Page 11
Western Society's forces that lead to a lack of present day Yukon First Nations Visual Culture	Page 14
Notes on Collections and Collectors	Page 24
Confusing Identifications	Page 26
What is Yukon First Nations Art?	Page 29
Chapter One- Cultural & Environmental Background, Art Periods and Comparative Art Styles	Page 33
Brief Background of Yukon First Nations' World	Page 33
Relationships with Animals	Page 41
Languages, Environment & Inland Tlingits	Page 44
Art Periods	Page 45
Geometric Period	Page 45
The Beaded Period	Page 46
The Current Period	Page 47
Brief Explanation of Yukon First Nations Images	Page 48
A Comparison between Coastal Tlingit Art and Yukon First Nations Art	Page 49
Comparison between Inland Tlingit and Coastal Tlingit Art	Page 50
Chapter Two-Geometric & Decorative Arts	Page 53
Geometric Period	Page 53
Repeating cone, dot & chevron motifs	Page 54
Zigzag motifs	Page 55
Cross hatching & Complex patterns	Page 58
Four Directions/Crosses	Page 61
Dot within a circle (Big Headed Starman motif) motif	Page 66
Bone Knives	Page 68
Baskets	Page 71
Spruce Root Baskets	Page 71
Birch Bark Baskets	Page 73
Babiche & Other Hunting Bags	Page 76
Dentalia	Page 78
Painting	Page 81
Red ochre	Page 81
Charcoal	Page 82

Items Painted	Page 83
Closing Comments	Page 84
Chapter Three-Hide Clothing to Dance Shirts	Page 85
Tunic Breastbands	Page 85
Tanaina Breastband Designs	Page 88
Gwich'in Breastband Designs	Page 90
Han & Northern Tutchone	Page 95
Southern Yukon Style	Page 97
Fancy Tunics	Page 104
The Last Athapaskan Tunic in use	Page 107
Gopher Coats & Rabbit Skin Clothing	Page 108
Changing Styles	Page 111
Pull-over Jackets and shirts	Page 112
Chief's Coats & Jackets	Page 116
Button Coats	Page 119
Dance Shirts	Page 121
Closing Comments	Page 130
Chapter Four-Beaded & Floral Designs	Page 131
Beaded Period	Page 131
Gwich'in Bead designs	Page 135
Upper Yukon River Floral Style	Page 141
Han bead designs	Page 145
Northern Tutchone Bead Designs	Page 148
Kaska Bead Designs	Page 149
Mountain Dene Style	Page 152
Southern Tutchone Bead Styles	Page 154
Tagish Bead Designs	Page 158
Inland Tlingit Bead Designs	Page 162
Tahltan Bead Designs	Page 167
Closing Comments	Page 170
Chapter Five-Figurative Art	Page 171
Introduction	Page 171
Stylized human-figure pendants	Page 172
Big Headed Star Man motif	Page 174
Stick Figures	Page 178
Outlined Figures	Page 191
Silhouette Figures	Page 199
Carved Images	Page 206
Beaded & Button Figurative Designs	Page 219
Water Animals	Page 221
Beaded bird designs	Page 226
Moose & Caribou	Page 233
Wolves	Page 236
Figurative Art: Comparing Athapaskan with Inland Tlingit	Page 238
Closing Comments	Page 238

Chapter Six-Ritual, Shaman Art & Story Related Art	Page 239
Introduction	Page 239
Puberty drinking tubes	Page 239
Pipes	Page 243
Shaman's Items	Page 247
Shaman Items: Bone/Antler Arm Bands	Page 248
Shaman Items: Pendants	Page 252
Shaman Items: Drums	Page 255
Shaman Items: Dolls	Page 258
Shaman Items: Magic War Stones	Page 263
Shaman Items: Masks	Page 264
Story Related Art-Kitty Smith's Carvings	Page 266
Closing Comments	Page 272
Chapter Seven-Art of the Hunt & War	Page 273
Introduction	Page 273
Brief overview of Yukon First Nations method of warfare	Page 273
Daggers	Page 276
Metal Daggers	Page 276
Bone Daggers	Page 285
Arrow, Dart & Spear points	Page 286
Oldest Example of Yukon First Nations Art	Page 287
Arrow & Atlatl Points	Page 288
War Clubs	Page 294
Hunt and Warfare Scenes	Page 295
Hunting Scenes on Arrow Quivers	Page 298
Additional Comments	Page 305
Chapter Eight-Art of the Potlatch & Death	Page 307
Background to Potlatches	Page 307
Drums	Page 310
Ganhooks	Page 316
Rattles	Page 335
Gopher skin robes to button blankets	Page 337
Face Painting and Tattooing	Page 347
Masks	Page 351
Headdresses	Page 360
Feather Plumes & Wanes	Page 364
Grave Art	Page 367
Closing Comments	Page 374
Chapter Nine-Trade Art & Current Period	Page 375
Trade Art	Page 375
Current Period	Page 378
Changing Bead Styles	Page 379
First Half of the Current Art Period:
Move towards Realism	Page 386
Pan-Indianism	Page 391
Second Half of the Current Period:
Adopting Northwest Coast Indian Art	Page 392

Current Artistic Issues	Page 398
Language	Page 399
Art/Visual Culture	Page 400
Religion/Spirituality	Page 400
Living off the Land/Traditional Lifestyle	Page 400
Acceptance of the Status Quo/ Unconscious expectations	Page 400
Economic development as the golden rule	Page 401
Final Comments	Page 402
Bibliography	Page 404
Abbreviations	Page 409
Summary	Page 410
Nederlandse samenvatting (Dutch summary)	Page 411
Propositions (Stellingen)	Page 412
Curriculum Vitae	Page 413

All photographs and illustrations were created by Ukjese van Kampen unless otherwise noted.

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank my supervising professors, Dr. Adelaar and Dr. Jansen, for their support of my subject and open mindedness about my research approach.

I have visited over forty museums over the course of my research into the history of Yukon First Nations art and I would like to thank them for allowing access to their collections and for the help they provided. Below are the museums I visited. The list is in no particular order and includes some cultural organizations that I received help from.

In the Yukon: MacBride Museum, Old Log Church Museum, Yukon Archives, Yukon Archaeology and Museums from Cultural Services, Dawson City Museum, Kluane Museum of Natural History, Mayo Historical Society, Atlin Historical Society, Klukshu Museum, Champagne and Aishihik First Nations and the Council for Yukon First Nations.

In Alaska: the University of Alaska Museum of the North, the Anchorage City Museum, the Alaska State Museum, the Sheldon Jackson Museum, The National Park Service, The Sheldon Museum, and the Alaska Native Heritage Center.

In Canada: Canadian Museum of Civilization, the Glenbow Museum and Vancouver Museum, The Museum of Anthropology at the University of British Columbia, the Royal Ontario Museum, and the Manitoba Museum.

In the United States: Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, the Burke Museum, The Field Museum of Natural History, The Hood Museum of Art in Hanover, the Peabody Museum, National Museum of Natural History & National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian,

In Europe: Ethnologisches Museum Staatliche Museen zu Berlin, Museum für Völkerkunde Hamburg, Museum Weltkulturen der Reiss-Engelhorn-Museen in Mannheim, Staatliches Museum für Völkerkunde München, Linden-Museum Stuttgart, and Museum der Weltkulturen in Frankfurt, all in Germany.

The British Museum in London and the Pitt River Museum in Oxford, United Kingdom, Náprstek Museum of Asian, African and American Cultures in Prague, Musée d'Ethnographie de Geneva (MEG) in Geneva, National Museum of Denmark, Ethnographic Collections in Copenhagen, Departamento de Etnología Museo de América in Madrid, National Museum of Finland in Helsinki, Musée du quai Branly in Paris; Peter the Great Museum, St. Petersburg, Russia, Museum für Völkerkunde in Vienna, Department of Ethnography at the University Museum Cultural History of Oslo, Museum Volkenkunde in Leiden, Museum of Ethnography in Stockholm,

I would like to thank the staff of these museums for allowing me to examine, photograph and/or use the photographs of their collections for the creation of this dissertation. I would also like to thank them for their support in my research, even if there ended up being no artifacts that I used from their museums.

Over the course of my research there have been a great number of people I have talked to and have offered their help. Since I started my research some of the people have passed away, and with them an irreplaceable amount of knowledge about my culture. I am so grateful that they were willing to impart some of that knowledge. Following are the people I offer my thanks to. The locations refer to the place I talked to them, which may not be their home communities:

In Whitehorse: Annie Ned, May Long, Emma Shorty, Norma Shorty, Irene Smith, Annie and Johnny Smith, Dinah Jim, Ingrid Johnson, Dave Neufeld, Rolf Hougen, Greg Hare, Ruth Gotthardt, Valery Monahan , Jim Robb, Keith Wolf-Smarch, Stan Peters, Diane Strand and Linda Harvey ; in Carmacks: Gary Sam; in Haines Junction: Marge Jackson and Mary Deguerre; in Klukshu: Frances Joe and Paul Birkel; in Ross River: Amos Dick, Ted Charlie, Kathlene Suza, and Norman Sterriah; in Upper Laird: Mida Donnessey and in Haines, Alaska, Irene Rowan.

I would also like to offers my gratitude to my wife, Pam van Kampen, who was always willing to read my drafts and ask for explanations about the contents of this dissertation. This exposed those areas that were clear for me, but would have proven foggy for everybody else.

I dedicate this thesis to my two daughters, Shadunjen (Sunchild-Southern Tutchone) and Yayata (Little Sky-Northern Tutchone) and hope they grow up in a world full of south-central Yukon First Nations artistic imagery.