Curriculum Vitae

Thérèse Peeters (‘s-Hertogenbosch, 1990) completed her BA in Italian Language and Culture and her BA in History at Leiden University in 2012. She continued there, and specialised in missionary correspondence and the role of trust, while working on her research master’s in Medieval and early modern European history in 2014. Thérèse also collaborated on the project “Vincent de Paul, the Congregation of the Mission, and the Papacy: Documents from the Vatican Archives (1625-1670)”, a digital catalogue and edition of archival sources.
