To my family

Acknowledgments

It has been a privilege undertaking this doctoral research at Universiteit Leiden, an institution whose motto Libertatis Praesidium (Bastion of Freedom) inspires me to exercise my own freedom of spirit, thought and speech.

I am indebted to my principal supervisor Professor Nico Schrijver for encouraging me to pursue PhD studies and guiding me throughout until this dissertation was completed. Thank you for your support, advice and engagement with my doctoral research and for your flexibility and open-mindedness. It has been an honour completing my PhD under your supervision and being inspired by you.

I am grateful to my supervisor Professor Eric de Brabandere. Thank you for the time generously dedicated to help me pursue this work, for the thorough reading of my chapters, for the meticulous and constructive feedback. It has been a privilege being able to learn from your experience.

I have been fortunate to work with many outstanding individuals and organizations during my studies. My gratitude extends to the International Law Commission's Special Rapporteur on the Protection of the Atmosphere Professor Shinya Murase for welcoming me as his research assistant at the United Nations Office at Geneva. To the Chilean Ambassador to the Netherlands Professor María Teresa Infante Caffi for facilitating my participation as independent researcher part of the Chilean delegation to the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (COP 22) in Marrakech. To esteemed scholars and legal practitioners, who have shared their knowledge and inspired me through their work. Particularly, Professor Duncan French, Professor Louis Kotzé, Professor Yongmin Bian, Dr Marcos Orellana, Dr Aline Jaeckel and Dr Linlin Sun. To the organizers of the conferences and seminars I contributed to in Nicosia, Glasgow, Rio de Janeiro and Leuven.

I would not have been able to complete my doctoral studies if not for my family's love and encouragement. I am deeply grateful to my husband Tom Winckels and our son Matthias Winckels. You are fundamental pillars of support to me. Thank you for your love, understanding and companionship during my PhD years. To my parents, Patricia Castillo and Juan Carlos Sánchez, for lifting me up during my studies providing encouragement and practical help whenever necessary. Muchas gracias por el amor y apoyo incondicional que siempre me han entregado. To my brother, Sebastián Sánchez Castillo, and his family for their love and support during this period both virtually and in person. Muchas gracias por estar siempre conmigo. To my Dutch family, de familie Winckels, for making my PhD life in the Netherlands gezellig. Ik ben enorm dankbaar voor jullie liefde en steun. To my extended, family in Chile for their support and curiosity about my work. To all of them, I dedicate this dissertation.
