Curriculum Vitae

Abdolreza Alamdar Baghini was born in 1975 in Kerman, Iran. He received his first degree in computer sciences in Tehran. He then changed his field of study to sociology and graduated with High Honours from the Department of Sociology at Tehran University. He contributed to four large-scale social research projects in Tehran. Thereafter, he was awarded two MA degrees, in sociology and in cultural memory, from Warwick University and School of Advanced Studies, University of London, respectively. He has been affiliated with the Iranian Studies Centre at SOAS from 2015 until now. Abdolreza has recently been invited to contribute a book chapter for publication in an edited volume, A Global History of Copper. The Encyclopaedia of Iranica has also invited him to write the entry for Sarcheshmeh Copper Mine. He starts teaching at the University of Kerman from January 2020.
