Acknowledgements

This dissertation would not have been possible without the continued support and guidance of my primary thesis supervisor, Prof. Dr. Marijke J. Klokke. As a teacher, she has allowed me a great deal of freedom in my research direction and as her student I remain in her debt. I am also grateful for the help and advice I have received from several other scholars, in particular my secondary supervisor Dr. Ellen M. Raven, along with Dr. Véronique Degroot, Prof. Dr. Arlo Griffiths, Dr. Nandana Chutiwongs and Pauline Lunsingh Scheurleer.

I would like to express my appreciation for the ENITS Scholarship I received from the Department of Thai Studies at the University of Chulalongkorn in Bangkok, Thailand, as well as the stipend from the Fund for South and Southeast Asian Art of the Leiden University Fund, which have helped fund part of my PhD research. The staff at the Museum Nasional Indonesia in Jakarta and Dr. Sri Tjahjani Kuhnt-Saptodewo at the Weltmuseum in Vienna have also been very supportive.

I would like to express my appreciation for the support I have received from a number of Southeast Asian PhD researchers, including Sandra Sardjono, Natalie Ong, Mathilde Mechling and Delphine Desouttier, who have all been gracious enough to share their research with me. My research was also greatly aided by the many librarians at the University of Leiden library, as well as the Royal Library (KB) in Stockholm.

Finally, I am grateful to my friends who tirelessly read chapter after chapter of my thesis, always adding helpful remarks, Manisha Dayal and Sayuri Gunawardene.
