Acknowledgement

Finishing a PhD project is obviously not an easy task. Therefore, in this section, I would like to acknowledge those who have helped and encouraged me to finish this enormous task. I would like to begin by thanking my two wonderful supervisors, Esther van Leeuwen and Fieke Harinck, for their guidance and valuable advice throughout this project. Thank you very much for those encouraging words that managed to keep me going in this PhD journey. I would also like to thank my promotor, Carsten de Dreu, for his insightful perspectives that really helped improve my research ideas and skills. Of course, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank my parents for their endless support. Thank you, mom and dad, for always reminding me of what matters the most in life.

In addition, there are colleagues and friends who never stopped providing me with their support throughout the project. I would like to thank my colleagues and former colleagues, particularly Joyce, Marsida, Maria, Baghdad, and Laura with whom I shared an office room. Thank you so much for the encouragement, insightful discussions, and fun moments. I would also like to thank my friends, Sume, Cheryl, Alida, Bunga, Albert, Nelly, Gita, Saras, Kristi, Joris, Adrian, Alan, Bryant, and others for their support. Thank you very much for the listening ears, and of course those jokes that never failed to make me laugh. Last but absolutely not least, I would like to thank Bart for his support in the last phase of my PhD project. I know that sometimes I forgot to take some rest, so thank you for reminding me of how important work-life balance is. All in all, finishing this PhD project would have been an impossible task if each and every one of you were not there to support me. So, thank you, thank you, and thank you.
