Vido, Corfu, 14 April 2017.

“There are past events in a nation’s history that are never truly over. For a variety of reasons, they are replayed, re-enacted, reproduced, retold as they become sacred scripts. They shine so bright that everything else fades to black.”

This is the story of the Serbian Retreat of 1915 and how it is remembered 100 years later.
