Curriculum Vitae

Diana Lucía Dávila Gordillo was born in Quito, Ecuador on December 6, 1987. She got her high school diploma in 2005 from Colegio Experimental Bilingüe Metropolitano, in Quito. She obtained a bachelor's degree in Sociology with a minor in Political Science from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador (PUCE) in 2011. She had started working at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Human Mobility in 2009 and continued working there as a political analyst after her graduation. In July 2012, she was appointed Second Secretary, Alternate Representative of Ecuador to the Organization of American States (OAS). She left that position to pursue her dream of joining academia in July 2014.

In July 2015, Diana graduated cum laude with a Master of Science in Political Science from Leiden University. She started her Ph.D. at the Institute of Political Science in March 2016 under the supervision of Prof. dr. Petr Kopecký, Dr. Maria Spirova, and Dr. Frank de Zwart. Diana has presented her research at a number of international conferences. Currently, she is working on turning this dissertation into publications and holds an appointment as a Lecturer from the Institute of Political Science at Leiden University.
