Theme/Topic	Sub-Themes	Dimensions/Features
2 nd Theme: Religious Searches	(ii) Seeking the Bible Searches	Stefan: In his mid-20s, he had sensed something missing, had only read parts of New Testament from Bible/bought Polish Bible, read it one Easter/Christmas searching for religious purpose/different relationship with God Romuald: Had attended Mass and learnt about Ten Commandments/started viewing things differently reading Bible, especially New Testament/found spirit of scripture, early Church organisation and duties in Bible/hadn't found these in Catholic Church, Mass hadn't affected him beyond Sunday Martyna: Had been reading/believed in Bible when Catholic Patrycja: Got famous version of Bible from daughter or work with sentence containing idea that God/Jesus/Holy Ghost were separate entities Szymon: His mother bought him Bible when Catholic priest had said he would go to hell for not attending Catholic Religion lessons at school/first tried showing Bible was false, but became fascinated writing articles about Christianity, especially St. Francis of Assisi/had still read Bible when Buddhist
	(v) Looking at Non-Catholic Churches	Celina: Stressed that if people believe in God, they should follow what they believe is the one true religion Stefan: Has an 'only one Church can be true' view/rejects relativist views as alternatives to absolute assertions about religious truth/believes that one, universal way of learning religious truth is praying directly to God/looked at other Churches while attending Catholic Mass/invited by friends, he'd gone to non-Catholic churches, not looking for new religion Szymon: Had encountered Jehovah's Witnesses/Seventh-Day Adventists/Pentecostals during long religious search Patrycja: Knew about Jehovah's Witnesses/Seventh-Day Adventists/Catholics through mixed religious background/had always sensed all religions were similar/her ex-husband knew Baptist religion from childhood through Baptist grandmother/they'd gone to Baptist chapel, had two daughters there during early marriage/Baptist minister had done her shopping as she'd been unemployed and her husband had

		drunk heavily/had found prayers in different languages funny at Baptist Church Józef : Hadn't been impressed by members and missionaries of Churches he'd met/but if he'd met Amish before LDS, he might be Amish now
	(vi) Looking at Buddhism	Barbara : Had been interested in Buddhism, reading books, not going anywhere Alicja : While she was young, her parents had practised Buddhism/had been curious about some family friends having different religions Józef : Had always respected Buddhists for their strong morality Szymon : Believed his brother was first unofficial Buddhist in Poland/his mother bought him a paper with picture of Buddha on front/had contacted a mountain village community of Polish Buddhists where he'd found out about Buddhists in Warsaw/had contacted a famous Polish Buddhist psychoanalyst/claimed to have started teaching about Buddhism at 17 despite no official initiation into Hinduism or Buddhism/had written about Buddhism/Hinduism/Christianity/Islam as an intellectual, non-spiritual process
	(vii) Looking at Islam/Judaism	Michał : Previous interest in monotheistic religions: Catholicism/Islam/Judaism Weronika : Once read about Jewish religion Szymon : Had visited a mosque in Warsaw many times/really liked the Koran, valuing Islam as a monotheistic religion
	(viii) Looking at Esoteric Religions	Alina : Previously member of a Church opposite to any Christian Church, Anton LaVey's Church of Satan Barbara : Had attended Rosicrucian meetings and lessons for a few months/similar to LDS religion, it had many lay people/had decided to become Rosicrucian, was turned down for membership at interview/decided to stop attending Rosicrucian meetings
