

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh: a political biography

Pourbagheri, H.

Citation

Pourbagheri, H. (2021, June 24). Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh: a political biography. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/3192234>

Version: Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/3192234>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Cover Page

Universiteit Leiden

The handle <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/3192234> holds various files of this Leiden University dissertation.

Author: Pourbagheri, H.

Title: Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh: a political biography

Issue Date: 2021-06-24

Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh

A Political Biography

Proefschrift

ter verkrijging van de graad van doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van rector magnificus prof.dr.ir. H. Bijl, volgens besluit van het college voor promoties
te verdedigen op donderdag 24 juni 2021
klokke 16.15 uur

door

Hossein Pourbagheri

Promotores: Prof. dr. T. Atabaki (Universiteit Leiden)
Prof. dr. A. Ansari (University of St Andrews)

Promotiecommissie: Prof. dr. G.R. van den Berg (Universiteit Leiden)
Prof. dr. N.K. Wickramasinghe (Universiteit Leiden)
Prof. dr. H.L. Murre-van den Berg (Radboud Universiteit)
Dr. T. Hoogervorst (KITLV/Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	vii
TRANSLITERATION.....	ix
INTRODUCTION.....	1
Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh; his Impact and his Legacy	1
A Living Legacy	4
Methodology	5
Review of Early Historiography.....	10
Sources	14
Structure	16
 PART ONE
A CONSTITUTIONALIST
 CHAPTER ONE: The Young Taqizadeh	21
Tabriz, Centre of Change	21
Taqizadeh's Family.....	26
The Influence of his Father	28
Taqizadeh's Early Education	31
Travels Abroad.....	42
 CHAPTER TWO: Taqizadeh and Constitutionalism	49
Taqizadeh and the Background of the Constitutional Revolution in Iran.....	50
Modernity in the Islamic World	52
European Influence	55
Economic Influences	57
Internal Causes	60
Taqizadeh's Theoretical Outlook.....	62
A Rising Man.....	63
Towards Tehran	66
Uprising in Tabriz.....	67
The Correct Way of Things	70
The Election Process for the First Parliament.....	72
Taqizadeh in Tehran.....	76
Cultural Activities	79
Taqizadeh's First Parliamentary Speech.....	80
The First Parliament (Majles).....	85
Taqizadeh and Amin al-Soltan (Atabak-e Azam)	91
The Assassination of Atabak	97
The Event of Tupkhaneh Square.....	100
Mohammad Ali Shah's Coup d'état and the End of the First Parliament	101

CHAPTER THREE: Activities to Restore the Constitution and First Exile in Europe	107
An Overview of Taqizadeh's Activities after the Closure of the First Parliament	109
From the British Legation towards Europe	110
Taqizadeh's First Attempts to Restore the Constitution in Iran	113
The Resistance of Tabriz	117
Battles in Tabriz	117
Accusing Constitutionalists of Being Babis	119
Tabriz Clergy and Iranian Constitutionalism	121
The Discourse of Modernity and the Importance of the Tabriz Resistance	127
Fully-fledged War in Tabriz and Taqizadeh's Activities in the Caucasus	131
Leaving the Caucasus	135
Europe at the turn of the Nineteenth Century	138
British Foreign Policy during the Nineteenth Century	141
Edward Browne and Taqizadeh's Journey to London	142
The Persia Committee	149
Browne and Iran	150
Taqizadeh and Browne	153
Persia's Appeal to England	154
Travelling to Tabriz	155
 CHAPTER FOUR: Restoration of the Constitution and Return from Exile.....	159
Events in Tehran and the Council of Notables	162
Taqizadeh's Activities in Tabriz	165
Taqizadeh and his Negotiations with 'Ain al-Dowleh	166
Taqizadeh and Sattar Khan	172
Revolts against the Shah in other parts of Iran	179
Isfahan and the Bakhtiয়ারis	180
Gilan	183
The Siege of Tabriz	187
Taqizadeh and his Telegraph to the Shah	189
The Joint Statement of Russia and Britain	191
The Electoral Law	193
The Plan to Attack Tehran	194
Differences of Opinion Concerning an Attack on Tehran	195
The Liberation of Tehran	196
 CHAPTER FIVE: Constitutionalists in Power	201
Arrival as a Hero	204
The Directive Committee (Heyat-e Modirieh)	206
The Tasks of the Directive Committee	211
Purging the Court	213
Appointing Governors	214
Choosing the Crown Prince and a New Cabinet	215

Punishment of Those who had Supported the ex-Shah	215
Establishing Order and Expelling the ex-Shah	217
Dissolution of the Directive Committee	220
Opposition to Taqizadeh	221
Elections for the Second Parliament.....	228
The Return of Behbahani	231
The Threat of Rahim Khan	232
The Second Parliament	233
The Democrat Party.....	235
The Democrats in the Parliament	239
Iran-e Now, a Modern Newspaper.....	241
The Religious Decree against Taqizadeh.....	242
The Assassination of Seyyed Abdollah Behbahani.....	244
Beginning of the Second Exile.....	244

CHAPTER SIX: Uncertainty in Exile and Events Leading up to the Great War.. 249

The Developing Conflict of Interests over the Middle East between Germany, Russia and Great Britain	250
Taqizadeh and his Views on Foreign Affairs	254
The Situation in Iran after Taqizadeh's Departure.....	255
The British Note of Interference.....	260
Taqizadeh in Istanbul.....	265
American Financial Experts.....	268
The Russian Ultimatum and Closure of the Second Parliament.....	271
Taqizadeh's Trip to Paris and London	275
The Russian Intervention and "The Reign of Terror in Tabriz".....	278
Moving to London and then the United States	280
Life in the United States	285
Co-operation with the Germans.....	287

CHAPTER SEVEN: The Great War and the Publication of Kaveh..... 293

Iran and the Great War.....	295
The Third Parliament.....	300
The Escalation of the War	302
The Committee of Iranian Nationalists in Berlin.....	303
The Migration and Provisional Government	306
Kaveh.....	311
Advisory Council for the Education of Iranian Students	317
Activities Outside Germany.....	323
The 1917 Stockholm Peace Conference	325
The Impact of Russian Revolution in Iran.....	327
The Paris Peace Conference.....	331
The Anglo-Persian Agreement of 1919.....	334
Taqizadeh's view on the Riots in the Provinces.....	338
The Second Series of Kaveh	341

The 1921 Coup	356
----------------------------	------------

PART TWO

THE STATESMAN

CHAPTER EIGHT: Taqizadeh as Statesman and the Rise of Reza Shah..... 361

Soviet Union Mission and the Trade Talks	361
Marriage.....	370
British Mission	376
Return to Iran.....	380

CHAPTER NINE: Minister, Diplomat, Scholar and Senator 385

The Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia.....	391
Return to Iran.....	401
Financial Hardship	402
Governorship of Khorasan.....	403
Iranian Minister in London.....	405
The Minister of Roads and Highways	406
The Minister of Finance	407
The D'Arcy Concession and its Cancellation.....	409
The Oil Agreement of 1933 and its Consequences for Taqizadeh	414
Iranian Minister in Paris.....	418
International Congress of Orientalists in Rome	422
The School of Oriental Studies in London	425
The Occupation of Iran by the Allies	435
The Minister in London.....	435
Northern Oil Concession and the Soviet Union.....	440
Events in Azerbaijan	442
Return to Iran from London and Membership in the Parliament	444
The Senate	448
The Senate Library.....	450
Taqizadeh and Freemasonry.....	452
Lectures at Colombia University.....	452
Taqizadeh in Old Age.....	453

CONCLUSION 455

APPENDIX..... 461

BIBLIOGRAPHY..... 469

SAMENVATTING..... 484

CURRICULUM VITAE..... 487

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Figure 1: Mozaffar al-Din Mirza, Crown Prince and Governor of Azerbaijan.....	30
Figure 2: Taqizadeh's brother, Seyyed Baqer Ordoubadi (died on 8 November 1940)	31
Figure 3: A drawing of Taqizadeh as a deputy of the First Parliament in a newly discovered manuscript.....	80
Figure 4: Taqizadeh depicted on the first page of the Ayeneh-e Gheyb Nama newspaper.....	90
Figure 5: Map showing the three “spheres” (Russian, British and Neutral) defined in the Anglo-Russian Agreement of 1917	115
Figure 6: The Mojaheds of Laylabad district in Tabriz	119
Figure 7: A page of the Ayeneh-e Gheyb Nama , 4 May 1908, depicting the interrogation of Seyyed Ali and Mohammad Yazdi who were behind the posting of announcements which introduced Constitutionalists as Babis.....	127
Figure 8: A page from Zanbur , depicting Taqizadeh and Mohammed Ali Shah. The caption in Azerbaijani Turkish reads: “My hand is bloody; is that why you do not shake hands with me? Look, now I have washed my hands. I can even wear gloves, if necessary”	171
Figure 9: Ali Mohammad Khan Tarbiat.....	186
Figure 10: The stamp used by the Directive Committee (left) and Extraordinary Grand Council	219
Figure 11: The list of the elected people for the second round of the elections.....	227
Figure 12: Taqizadeh in Berlin.....	305
Figure 13: The Provincial Government Cabinet from right to left: Ardalan, Minister of Agriculture; Farzin; Minister of Finance; Sam'ai, Minister of the Interior; Nezam al-Saltaneh, the interim head of the cabinet and the Minister of War; Modarres, Minister of Justice; Mafi, deputy Foreign Minister; Qasem Sur-e Esrafil, Minister of Post and Telegraphs.	307
Figure 14: An article about Taqizadeh in the Swedish newspaper, Stockholms Dagblad	327
Figure 15: The front page of the first issue of the second series of Kaveh	342

Figure 16: Taqizadeh at the negotiation table with the Russians	368
Figure 17: Taqizadeh with the other members of the Russian mission	370
Figure 18: Taqizadeh and Edith Van Jung in Berlin.....	372
Figure 19 Taqizadeh with his wife.....	375
Figure: 20: 1926 Persia Building, Sesqui-centennial International Exposition	400
Figure 21: Taqizadeh in front of the Persia Building raising the flag of the United States, Dedication Ceremony, 6 October 1926	401
Figure 22: Taqizadeh depicted in a drawing, helping the victims of the earthquake in Khorasan.....	405
Figure 23: The telegraph Taqizadeh sent to the School of Oriental Studies London, offering his services for free.....	426
Figure 24: Taqizadeh's letter to Sir Denison Ross. Source: Taqizadeh's personnel file, SOAS, London.....	433
Figure 25: Letter concerning Taqizadeh's wish to receive monies directly from the Director of the School of Oriental Studies rather than unidentified sources, in order to "silence the curiosity of his friends"	434
Figure 26: Taqizadeh with family members	462
Figure 27: Taqizadeh with his wife and other family members	463
Figure 28: The original gravestones of Taqizadeh and his wife in Zahir al-Dowleh Cemetery in the north of Tehran.	465
Figure 29: The original cracked and neglected gravestone of Taqizadeh.....	466
Figure 30: The current gravestone of Taqizadeh in Zahir al-Dowleh Cemetery	466
Figure 31: The announcement of Taqizadeh's death written by his friend in Tabriz	467
Figure 32: The announcement of Taqizadeh's death written by his family and friends in Tabriz	467

Acknowledgments

The focus of this thesis is a man from Tabriz, a man whose chosen path through life was not always the most conventional and certainly not without challenge. Seyyed Hassan Taqizadeh must have at times questioned his chosen path; wondering whether his efforts, working steadfastly towards his goal, would ever be rewarded and at the same time often pleasantly surprised and always thankful for the help and support that was shown to him. Similarly, I too have benefitted greatly from the assistance and guidance I have received during my intellectual journey towards completion of my PhD. Unlike Taqizadeh who was a key figure in Iranian political history and who later became a great statesman, my diaries and correspondence will not be consulted so that evidence of my appreciation and gratitude are evident. Here, though, I at least have the opportunity to thank those people without whose help the completion of this thesis would have been extremely difficult if not impossible.

Firstly, I would like to thank Professor Touraj Atabaki for his valuable advice, intellectual assistance and patience in supervising this task; he has truly been a mentor and an inspiration and I could not have completed this research without his support. It has been an honour and privilege to have been his student. I would also like to thank my second supervisor, Professor Ali Ansari, for his helpful comments and his hospitality during my visit to the University of St. Andrews. On a more personal level, I owe a lot to Nima Shirvani and Setareh Pakzad who always supported me with great kindness. Special thanks must go to my dear friend Alexandra de Vos for her unconditional support, encouragement and love. Thanks also to Serhan Afacan for his friendship and encouragement. I will never forget the discussions we had in Leiden, Istanbul, London and Tabriz. I should also thank Rado Vleugel not only for his continuing friendship and his philosophical insights but also for the design of the cover of this thesis. I want to thank Amin Cherehbardar and Gholam Reza Saati for putting me in touch with Taqizadeh's family in Tabriz and Tehran. I am also very grateful to Masoud Shalchi and staff of the National Library of Tabriz who were always ready to help me with accessing material I needed for my research. I am thankful to my friend, Bas den Uijl, for translating the Dutch abstract of this thesis. Many thanks to Mohammad Karim Eshraq who always helped me with finding materials about Taqizadeh and answering my many questions with his encyclopaedic knowledge. The following people I thank for their friendship and help: Laleh Massiha, Merel Kahman, Behrouz Karoubi, Victoria Nyst, Galina Cornelisse, Ans de Rooij-van Broekhuizen, Idress Kant. My special thanks goes to Debbie Duman who meticulously edited this work with eagle eyes and saintly patience. Her help and support were the most valuable and I owe to her an immense debt of gratitude. Finally, I want to thank all my family who have helped and supported me.

Transliteration

Throughout this research, transliteration of Persian based on the system of the International Society of Iranian Studies has been used with some minor adjustments. For the names of people and places I have used the most common spelling in English and the names of some well-known historical figures have been spelled as they are commonly used and accepted. Inconsistencies in spellings may occur within quotations as I have maintained the spellings of the original authors. In older texts, Iran is generally referred to as Persia but I have used Iran whenever I have referred to the country; Persia, though, has been used when citing original works. All the translations into English from the original Persian are my own.

