Curriculum Vitae

Morshed is currently a Max Weber Fellow at the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies at the European University Institute in Florence working on blockchain governance. He wrote this dissertation at Leiden University, Leiden Law School.

Before being awarded a postdoctoral fellowship, Morshed was a Research Associate at the European University Institute. During the course of his PhD trajectory, Morshed was a Research Associate at the Institute for the Cooperative Digital Economy at The New School in New York City and was a visiting researcher at the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge under the LERU PhD exchange programme.

After beginning his PhD research project at Leiden University in 2017, Morshed conducted research on workers' and platform cooperatives, corporate governance, freedom of establishment and, most recently, blockchain technology and artificial intelligence. He was a lecturer in Leiden's Advanced LLM and International Business Law LLB programmes, teaching courses on worker representation in the workplace, freedom of establishment and comparative corporate governance. He also served on the Exam Commission of Leiden Law School's Advanced LLM programmes for several years, including two years as its Chairman. During this time, Morshed was a national expert on Bangladesh's cooperative law for an International Cooperative Alliance-Asia Pacific research project funded by the European Commission and served NCBA CLUSA as an expert working group member to develop the 'CLARITY 2.0' principles for cooperative law reform. He is one of the drafters of the 'DAO Model Law', published by the Coalition of Automated Legal Applications (COALA), and is a section editor of the Internet Policy Review for its Glossary of Decentralised Technosocial Systems.

Earlier, Morshed moved to the Netherlands in 2014 to pursue a LLM in Advanced Studies in International Civil and Commercial Law at Leiden University on a Leiden Excellence Scholarship. In August 2015, he completed his degree with a cum laude distinction. Between late 2015 and 2017, Morshed worked as a Teaching/Research Faculty Member at the Company Law department of Leiden Law School, teaching courses on international business law and comparative corporate law. Before moving to Leiden, Morshed was a lawyer and lecturer in Dhaka, Bangladesh. He was called to the Bar of England & Wales in July 2012 and enrolled as an Advocate of the Bangladesh Bar Council in 2014.
