

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Individualized prognosis in childhood immune thrombocytopenia

Schmidt, D.E.

Citation

Schmidt, D. E. (2022, April 7). Individualized prognosis in childhood immune thrombocytopenia. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/3281832>

Version: Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/3281832>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

---

Masja, you've been an outstanding person to work with and I truly feel that you want the best for me. Thank you so much for giving me space but being there when I needed you.

Katja, your dedication during the better part of two decades made this dissertation possible. Thank you for all your support and being such a friendly and forthcoming person.

Marrie, you have worked very hard for this project, thank you for believing in me and adding a lot from your perspective as experienced clinician and a clever thinker.

Gestur, for always making time when needed, thank you for animated discussion and friendship.

Ellen, for being very involved, I respect you a lot personally and as a scientist.

Rick, I'm so happy you not only became a great friend but also part of our team.

Leendert, for inspiration to never stopping to ask fundamental questions and for welcoming me to your lab.

For guidance, collaboration and friendship: Marco Manca, Erik Koomen, Anna Ågren and Florian Langer.

Studienstiftung des Deutschen Volkes, especially Peter Antes.

TULIPS Postdoc group, for our community and being a source of inspiration.

In Leiden, Bart, who added more to this thesis than is immediately visible. Anske, a concise thinker. Manfred, Noortje, Eva, David and especially Iwona, thank you! Pernille and Steen in Denmark, both a source of positivity. Minke Rab (Utrecht), Rita Corsetti and Eva Piano Mortari (Rome) for kind contributions.

Mo, Anita, Fatima and Kaoutar who were essential to this work. Also, Carla, Eline, and Inge Klanker. John for being fundamental to all our success.

Elly, Gonda, Ilona, Laura, Marrie, Roxanne, Suzanne and Tarja, you contributed so much to this work. Remco and Suzanne in the lab, Josephine in the biobank, as well as Erik, Mark, and Simon at the core facility. Mark, Ine and Erik from Immunocytology.

Students Ashwini, Lisa, Anke, thanks for all the joy and hard work.

Fellow MD/PhDs, Dian and Myrthe, for welcoming me. Thijs. Jorn. Aafke. Lieke. Marit, you were great to have around.

Gerard, Inge, Diana, Brenda, and Sacha for complement work. Arno, Maaïke, Anja and Jan for platelet work; Maurice for the B cell project. Monika, Aurelie and Branka for T cell culture. Derk for scientific inspiration.

Zoltan, Thijs and Robin for collaboration and friendship. Arthur for holding this department together. Max, Erik, Steven, Mads, you've been great.

Sietse and Taco, I have learned a lot from you. Also Barbera and Anemieke.

Karin Fijnvandraat and Marieke van Ham for improving my sense of direction.

Ilse, Corina, Han, and Rick, you really enhanced my time, I looked forward to coming to work just to meet you.

Francesca for friendship. Ben for friendship and contributions to my analyses. Felix for becoming a good friend. Sofia, for fun times and help with Swedish.

Agneta and Anders. Petra, Elsa, Malin, and Valja, for always making me feel welcome. Maria B., Maria F. and Jovan for including me. Maria M., your support means a lot. Margareta. Ammar and Jacob who are both very inspiring to me. Petter Höglund. Pernilla Grillner for welcoming me back. Yasmin and Felix for welcoming me to their lives and home.

Mirjam, Dimi and Greg, who I hold very close to my heart. Wolfgang and George, I miss you, and Tiago.

My dear friends. Bob, Isabelle, Lausi, Leo, wholeheartedly Matheus, Mira, and Stella. Marc H., I wish you were here. Steph and Heng. Ondrey. You are a source of inspiration and have impacted this thesis.

Sijia, Tiago, Gwen for friendship and immunology talks.

Torben and Telma, for keeping me sane, and Eszter for sharing great times.

Malte, a great friend for many years.

Fellow Running Junkies for being a source of fun and a window to the world.

Anna W. for being a wonderful person, your support during my studies and this dissertation means so much to me. You have shared with me the biggest personal burden of this project, words can only come short, I cannot express my gratitude enough.

Sara for being a lightening spark that energized my life, you've brought so much positivity to me, I thank you wholeheartedly.

Paranimf Natalie. I value you so much in my life, it never feels like an effort to get together despite distance. Thank you for being an amazing friend!

Paranimf Laurens. Through studies, living together and many adventures. Your cleverness and clear thinking are inspiring. Thank you so much for being part of my life.

My second family, Marc, Yves, Thomas, for lovely times, vision, support and sharing values.

Marlene and Paula. Frieder and Trixi, my moving abroad must have been emotionally more difficult than you let on, and your support means so much to me. You shared successes and could motivate me when times were difficult. This dissertation would not have happened without you and therefore it is consciously dedicated to you.