We regret 2 errors in our Editor Page (JNC-21-444-EP).

1. Dr. Richard Brunken reminded us that Linus Pauling won the Nobel Prize in Chemistry in 1954 and won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1962 for his opposition to weapons of mass destruction; Both Nobel Prizes were undivided.

2. Dr. Andrew Einstein reminded us that the Japanese journal “Annals of Nuclear Cardiology” continues publishing after Dr. Yoshinaga’s passing.
