Curriculum Vitae

Tan Yujing was born in Xiangtan (Hunan Province) in the People's Republic of China on February 10, 1990. She specializes in modern Chinese economy and development and the sociology and anthropology of contemporary China. Focusing on transformation of governance, her research includes Chinese local state, urban planning, social mobility, industrial upgrading and innovations, and more recently China-driven internationalization. She also has a second line of research studying state-business relationships in modern (South) China. She earned her BA from Hunan Normal University in 2010 and MA from Zhejiang University in 2012. Between December 2012 and 2022, she conducted Ph.D. research at the Leiden Institute for Area Studies (LIAS). Among them, she did fieldwork in Shenzhen for a total of 13 months from 2015 to 2017. Since August 2020, she has been working as lecturer and tutor in International Studies at Leiden University, teaching courses related to Political Economy, Cultural Studies and Area Studies.
