Acknowledgements

First I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisors: to Professor Frans-Willem Korsten, for the intellectual exchanges and supervision, for the way in which he always provoked me to think one step further, and for trusting me and giving me the opportunity to develop myself as a teacher. To Dr Sara Brandellero, who has always taken me under her wing, for igniting a spark in me, inspiring and pushing me to pursue an academic career, and believing in me for all the years in which she has selflessly guided and supported me. And to Dr Kamila Krakowska-Rodrigues, for her positive outlook and calmness during the difficult moments that arose, for her guidance, motivation and encouragement.

I am also grateful to my colleagues from the NITE-team for their support and interest, and for the inspiring talks and memorable moments we shared together. In no particular order they are Professor Ben Campkin, Dr Lo Marshall, Dr Alessio Koliulis, Dr Ailbhe Kenny, Dr Katherine Young, Dr Derek Pardue, Professor Manuela Bojadzije, Laura Solmaz-Litschel, Francianne Velho dos Santos, Maxime Schut and Angel Perazzetta. The NITE project is financially supported by the HERA Joint Research Programme (www.heranet.info) which is co-funded by NWO, AHRC, IRC, DASTI, BMBF, DLR-PT and the European Commission through its Horizon 2020 program.

Thanks are also due to the Leiden Arts in Society Institute (LUCAS), and to my colleagues at the LUCAS Office and the Management Team, for their great administrative support, career guidance and practical advice.

I would also like to express deep appreciation for all the participants, interviewees and non-academic partners whose collaboration has made this project possible. This includes Jorge Lizardo, Carlos Gonçalves, Jorge da Veiga, Sonya Dias, Lena Évora, Toy Vieira, Davidson

Rodrigues, Vera Rocha, Cikay Lúcio da Costa, Leovegildo Vieira, Arnaldo Soares, Danilo Tavares, Elmer Lopes, Hermes Delgado, Jacqueline Fortes and Savannah da Rosa.

I am extremely grateful to have been inspired and touched by the stories of three pioneers of the Cabo Verdean community who passed away during the course of this research: Guilherme Mendes da Silva (1935-2019), Manuel Felipe Rodrigues (1941-2021) and Tomázia Teixeira (1958-2021).

Lastly I would like to express my gratitude to my partner Gina, my parents, my brother and my sister-in-law, who always listened to me and offered me support.
