Curriculum Vitae

Kritika Sharma (Chandigarh, India, 1992) completed her Bachelor of Laws (B.A. LLB, Honors) in 2016 from Amity University Uttar Pradesh, India. She then graduated with a Master of Laws in advanced studies in public international law with a specialisation in international criminal law from Leiden University (cum laude) in 2017. In 2016 and 2018 she was part of the delegation of Liechtenstein to the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute. In 2017-2018 she worked as a judicial fellow at the International Court of Justice. Kritika started her PhD at Leiden Law School of Leiden University in September 2018. In 2020 she worked as a research assistant for the Independent Expert Review of the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute System. Between 2019 until 2023 Kritika worked as a research fellow within the Department of International Law and Dispute Resolution at the Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for International, European and Regulatory Procedural Law and at the Luxembourg Centre for European Law at the University of Luxembourg between January until September 2024. She has previously worked as a legal researcher on the Report by the Council of Advisers on the Application of the Rome Statute to Cyberwarfare, in collaboration with Harvard Law School. She also worked as a legal intern at the International Court of Justice, the International Criminal Court and the Coalition for the International Criminal Court. Currently, Kritika works at the Luxembourg Agency for Research Integrity as the Research Integrity Advisor.
