

Universiteit
Leiden

The Netherlands

A truth universally acknowledged: Dutch investment in French colonial resources in the Eighteenth Century

Boer, T.W.M. de

Citation

Boer, T. W. M. de. (2025, May 7). A truth universally acknowledged: Dutch investment in French colonial resources in the Eighteenth Century. Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4245272>

Version: Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4245272>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

A TRUTH UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED

Dutch Investment in French Colonial Resources in the Eighteenth Century

Tessa Willemina Maria de Boer

Cover design and lay-out: Joey Roberts | www.ridderprint.nl
Print: Ridderprint | www.ridderprint.nl

Copyright (C) 2025: Tessa de Boer

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, by photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the author.

A Truth Universally Acknowledged

Dutch Investment in French Colonial Resources in the Eighteenth Century

Proefschrift

ter verkrijging van
de graad van doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van rector magnificus prof.dr.ir. H. Bijl, volgens besluit van het college voor promoties
te verdedigen op woensdag 7 mei 2025
klokke 16:00 uur

door

Tessa Willemina Maria de Boer geboren te Heemskerk
op 7 oktober 1997

Promotor

Prof.dr. C.A.P. Antunes

Co-promotor

Dr. E.A.R. Heijmans (Universiteit Antwerpen)

Promotiecommissie

Prof.dr. J.F.J. Duindam

Prof.dr. M. van Groesen

Dr. L.P.F. Laborie

Prof.dr. M. Fusaro (University of Exeter)

Prof.dr. S. Marzagalli (Université Côte d'Azur)

Het onderzoek voor dit proefschrift werd uitgevoerd binnen het project Exploiting the Empire of Others: Dutch Investment in Foreign Colonial Resources, 1570-1800 (VI.C.191.027), en werd gefinancierd door de Nederlandse Organisatie voor Wetenschappelijk Onderzoek (NWO).

This dissertation was produced in the context of the project Exploiting the Empire of Others: Dutch Investment in Foreign Colonial Resources 1570-1800 (VI.C.191.027), financed by the Dutch Research Council (NWO).

Table of Contents

List of Graphs	8
List of Illustrations	9
List of Maps	10
List of Tables	11
List of Abbreviations	12
 Acknowledgments	 15
Introduction	19
 PART 1     RETHINKING COLONIAL INVESTMENT:              Indirect Trade	 50
Chapter 1   Sculpting the World of Indirect Trade	57
1.1   Reassembling a Fragmented Historiography	58
1.2   A Sweet Surplus: Pushes from France	62
1.3   An Insatiable Demand: Pulls from the Dutch Republic	72
Chapter 2   Organizing Indirect Trade	87
2.1   All Quiet on the Western Front? Franco-Dutch Political and Demographic Relations into the Eighteenth Century	88
2.2   Familiar Faces? The Organization of Business in Indirect Trade	95
2.3   Plain Sailing: Shipping and Logistics in Indirect Trade	107
Chapter 3   The Amsterdam Market in Indirect Trade	117
3.1   Wholesalers	118
3.2   Brokers	124
3.3   Competing with Refiners	129
Conclusion to part 1	135
 PART 2     CONFRONTING COLONIAL INVESTMENT:              Direct Trade	 138
Chapter 4   Anticipating Risk and Uncertainty	145
4.1.   Historiography: Risk, Uncertainty, and the Sea	146
4.2.   The Hunger Games: Policies, Law and Practice in the French West Indies	151
4.3.   War Never Changes? The Fallout of War in the French Empire	159

	4.4. Rule, Britannia! Risks and Opportunities of Neutral Direct Trade in Wartime	165
Chapter 5	Preparing for Risk and Uncertainty	169
	5.1. Risk, Uncertainty, and the Labor in Between	170
	5.2. O Captain! My Captain! Selecting Senior Officers	173
	5.3. Sharing is Caring: Owners, Freighters, and Officers	181
	5.4. Temptation Island? Shipmasters and Seamen	188
Chapter 6	Managing Risk and Uncertainty	197
	6.1. La Mer à Boire: Negotiations at Sea	198
	6.2. Bienvenue Chez les Îles? Risky Arrivals in French Colonial Ports	202
	6.3. Bienvenue Chez les Îles! Succesful Arrivals in French Colonial Ports	208
	6.4. Well Captured: Falling into the Enemy's Hands	212
	Conclusion to part 2	227
PART 3	PROLIFERATING COLONIAL INVESTMENT: Finance	232
Chapter 7	Private Dutch Finance in the French West Indies	239
	7.1. The Expanding World of Finance	240
	7.2. Settling the Bill: Commercial Payments in Commodities and Cash	242
	7.3. Passing the Bill: The Layered Role of Private Dutch credit in the French Empire	246
Chapter 8	Bridging Private and Public Finance for the French Empire	255
	8.1. La Hydre de Lerne: Crises and Solutions in French Public Finance	256
	8.2. Institutional Management, Informal Stakeholdership	259
	8.3. Analyzing Annuities	263
Chapter 9	French Public Finance and the Dutch Republic	275
	9.1. Diffusing Tensions? National Projects and International Resources	276
	9.2. Behind the Scenes of the Dutch General Public and French Public Debt	278
	9.3. Securities and Security: Contextualizing Dutch-based Indirect Investment	283

9.4. Au Service de la France: French Public Debt and Dutch Financial Services	287
9.5. Capital Diplomacy	292
Conclusion to part 3	301
Conclusion	305
Bibliography	315
Appendices	337
Appendix A: Annuities Dataset	338
Appendix B: Bills of Exchange Dataset	344
Appendix C: Brokers Dataset	350
Appendix D: Notarial Dataset	354
Appendix E: Paulus Dataset	362
Appendix F: Voyages Dataset	366
Nederlandse samenvatting	372
Résumé en français	378
Curriculum Vitae	384

List of Graphs

Graph 1	Annual value of French Atlantic colonial commerce, 1710-1800 (millions of livres tournois).	61
Graph 2	Annual import of French West Indian cash crops into France, 1765-1790 (millions of French poids de marc ).	61
Graph 3	Annual percentage of West Indian cash crop imports by France which are re-exported, 1774-1792.	62
Graph 4	Destination of French colonial re-exports, 1786-1790 (percentage of total value).	73
Graph 5	Number of refineries in Amsterdam, the Dutch Republic, Bordeaux and Orléans, 1600-1820.	79
Graph 6	Origin of raw sugar imports to the Dutch Republic, 1750-1790 (millions of pounds).	80
Graph 7	Composition of freight on re-export voyages from French Atlantic ports to Amsterdam, 1700-1790.	109
Graph 8	Composition of freight per French Atlantic port of departure, 1700-1790.	110
Graph 9	Percentage of voyages with mixed freight over time, 1700-1790 (five-year averages).	111
Graph 10	Price of sugar per pound on the Amsterdam market, 1700-1800 (annual averages).	122
Graph 11	Appraised losses of captured direct trade ships and freight known in Amsterdam by July 1758 (thousands of guilders).	182
Graph 12	Dutch-based holders of French public debt by sex, 1762-1789 (percentage of total investors).	267
Graph 13	Dutch-based holdings of French public debt by sex, 1762-1789 (percentage of total invested capital).	267
Graph 14	Dutch-based holders of French public debt by province of residence, 1762-1789 (percentage of investors with recorded residences).	269
Graph 15	Dutch-based holdings of French public debt by province, 1762-1789 (percentage of total known capital).	269
Graph 16	Dutch-based holders of French public debt by professional affiliation, 1762-1789 (percentage of investors with recorded affiliations).	270
Graph 17	Dutch-based holdings of French public debt by professional affiliation, 1762-1789 (percentage of total known capital).	270

List of Illustrations

Illustration 1	Print depicting Dutch merchants handing over a petition to Anne, Princess Royal and Princess of Orange, regarding the British assault on their properties. Made by Simon Fokke and published by Frans Houttuyn, 1758 (181 mm x 242 mm).	216
Illustration 2	Caricature of Dutch diplomatic negotiations with Britain in favor of direct trade with the French colonies. Made by M. Darly, 1750s (153 mm x 280 mm).	221
Illustration 3	Cover of the accounts of America's trading in Port-au-Prince, kept by first mate Willem Roosendaal, 1756-1757.	244

List of Maps

Map 1	Colonial possessions in the West Indies, 1717-1792.	156
Map 2	Colonial possessions in the Lesser Antilles, 1717-1792.	157

List of Tables

Table 1	Value of ‘colonial’ annuities, reconstituted to a Dutch-based investor.	265
----------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

List of Abbreviations

AAA	Alle Amsterdamse Akten
AdG	Archives départementales de la Gironde
AE	Fonds des Affaires Étrangères
AN	Archives Nationales de France
ANOM	Archives Nationales d’Outre-Mer
COL C	Correspondance à l’arrivée
HCA	High Court of Admiralty
KB	Koninklijke Bibliotheek
KW Pft	Pamfletten
NL-HaNA	Nationaal Archief
NL-RtSA	Stadsarchief Rotterdam
NL-SAA	Stadsarchief Amsterdam
NL-UTHUA	Utrechts Archief
P	Chambre des comptes et comptabilité
T	Papiers privés tombés dans le domaine public
TNA	The National Archives

Acknowledgments

I'll keep it short and sweet: I loved working on this dissertation! It was fun! Yet I'm as proud of my own efforts, as I am grateful for the uniquely warm environment that nurtured them. Countless people positively impacted this work. Even if I can't mention everyone by name: you know who you are, and you were wonderful.

Cátia, you have my gratitude for seeing me. You helped me to – in a way finally – grow into myself. Your talent for unleashing potential in those unaware they possess it is very special; it's also thrilling to experience. I'm grateful for you, perhaps even a bit scared now that it's 'over'. But as you say, there are no goodbyes, and if anyone taught me I can fly alone, it's definitely you. Elisabeth, thank you for being the cool, wise, down-to-earth mentor and big sister-figure. You were always there, to the point, and an excellent role model. Cátia and Elisabeth, to me you made as perfect a supervisory team as it gets. Obrigada, and merci.

This PhD completes my alma mater-homerun at the Leiden University Institute for History. The Institute is home to 'the team' – officially of the Exploiting the Empire of Others-project (Ramona, Gijs, Noelle, Susana, Luc, Florian, Matthias, Philipp, and Bob), unofficially of many more wonderful colleagues. Thank you for your feedback and your terrific PowerPoint Karaoke-skills. Special thanks to Gijs, our ever accommodating 1.13 office mate, who effortlessly balanced intellectual input with a disguised interest in Vrienden van Lingo. My gratitude also goes out to individuals beyond the team. Marlou Schrover made the ESG-section a welcoming place for PhDs. Jeroen Duindam, Raymond Fagel, and especially Maurits Ebben each inspired and facilitated me to pursue this path. It was meaningful to defend the position of junior colleagues with my fellow PhD representatives Eileen and Theo. Patricia and Geke, thank you for the casual office chats when we didn't really feel like working!

Beyond Leiden, there's a myriad of brilliant individuals and institutions to thank. The N.W. Posthumus Institute financially and practically supported this work. I'm also sincerely grateful to the colleagues in France who generously volunteered their time, coffee, and seminars during my visits. Your genuine interest in my work proved an important and durable motivator. Among (many) others, I thank Silvia Marzagalli for sharing her insights and written work on various occasions, Cécile Vidal for inviting me to her seminar at EHESS, and Bertrand van Ruymbeke for showing me around his favorite Parisian bookstore. Next, my gratitude goes to two sets of colleagues. Alle Amsterdamse Akten is the cornerstone of not only this work, but also of my passion for history. I owe much to the colleagues and volunteers at the Amsterdam City Archives. Your (generosity in letting me) work on the best archive in the world was instrumental. Richard deserves a special mention for being the very first one to show me just how cool an old piece of paper can be. I also celebrate my current colleagues at NWO, who have made me feel so welcome over the past year. The light-hearted yet earnest support of the entire Veni team as well as of my buddy Lineke was very precious during the final sprint. You are all nothing short of excellent.

Over the years I've come to realize that my family consists of exceptionally and thoroughly decent people. Their love and nurturing has been invaluable in realizing this work long before it even began. Mama, thanks for understanding me. Papa, thanks for your infectious enthusiasm for everything that I do. Tristan, thanks for our weird mutual humor. Gijsbert, thanks for being the benevolent 'luis in de pels'. Veronique, thanks for becoming my sister (and for affirming that in our family, doctoral studies are a feminine pursuit!). Ilias, thanks for your cuddles. Twan, thanks for your patience. You are the next chapter.

It's fitting that I close with the girls who were there from the beginning. Ramona, as the other half of 'the package deal', this dissertation is as much yours as it is mine. It was a privilege doing this PhD together with you: from rooftop bars in Lisbon, to swimming pools in Gran Canaria, to the rain in Prato...we lived it to the fullest. I'm immensely proud of you and fiercely grateful for your friendship. Jessica, you are one of my favorite people in this world. Your observational nature is unmatched, your humor is unrivalled, and your attitude to life's absurdities is unequaled. The three of us had a dangerous and delightful amount of fun these past years, filled with sensational podcasts, endless side projects, elaborate birthday cards, conferences-annex-holidays, and aperolletyes. It's cliché, but nevertheless poignantly true: I could not have done it without you. Here's to many more years of the Drama & Gossip Company!