Curriculum Vitae

Adrian Perkasa was born in Tulungagung, Indonesia, in 1988. He received his bachelor's degrees in history and international relations from Universitas Airlangga in 2012 and a master's degree in history at Universitas Gadjah Mada in 2015. He pursued his academic career while writing a dissertation at the Leiden Institute for Area Studies at Leiden University from 2019–2024. Adrian experienced several fellowships at different institutes, including the Asia Research Institute National University of Singapore and the NIOD Institute for War, Holocaust, and Genocide Studies. From July 2023 to August 2024, he worked as the 13th International Convention of Asia Scholars Project Manager, which was organized by the International Institute for Asian Studies. Currently, he is working as a postdoctoral researcher at the Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies (KITLV).
