CURRICULUM VITAE

Alexander Edgar Schermerhorn completed his pre-university secondary education at Christelijk Streeklyceum in Ede. In 1992, Alexander graduated from the HMSM Hotel Management School Maastricht. He worked in the hospitality industry for several years before continuing his studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam at the Faculty of Social Sciences, where he obtained his master's degree in Public Administration in 2003. While enrolled in this programme, Alexander also worked in the IT industry. He began his part-time PhD studies at the Institute of Public Administration of Leiden University in 2010.

In 2009, he completed a procurement course offered by the NEVI Netherlands Association for Procurement Management. Since then, he has held various positions in sales and procurement before joining the Ministry of Defence in 2018. In 2023, he graduated from the NLDA Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda. Alexander currently serves as a procurement officer for the Dutch Ministry of Defence, primarily focusing on ICT-related goods and services. He is also actively engaged in innovation-oriented procurement.
