

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

Common grounds: urban spaces, everyday religious encounters, and the dynamics and techniques of coexistence in Madina, Accra (1959-Present)
Fosu-Ankrah, J.F.B.B.

Citation

Fosu-Ankrah, J. F. B. B. (2025, October 24). Common grounds: urban spaces, everyday religious encounters, and the dynamics and techniques of coexistence in Madina, Accra (1959-Present). Retrieved from <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4280839>

Version: Publisher's Version

License: Licence agreement concerning inclusion of doctoral thesis in the Institutional Repository of the University of Leiden

Downloaded from: <https://hdl.handle.net/1887/4280839>

Note: To cite this publication please use the final published version (if applicable).

Common Grounds: Urban Spaces, Everyday Religious Encounters, and the Dynamics and Techniques of Coexistence in Madina- Accra (1959–Present)

Proefschrift

ter verkrijging van de graad van doctor aan de Universiteit Leiden, op gezag van rector magnificus prof.dr.ir. H. Bijl, volgens besluit van het college voor promoties te verdedigen op vrijdag 24 oktober 2025
klokke 13.00 uur

door

Joseph Fiifi Barimah-Begyina Fosu-Ankrah

geboren te Assin Fosu, Ghana in 1985

Promotores:

Prof.dr. J.B. Gewald

Prof.dr. B. Meyer (Universiteit Utrecht)

Copromotor:

Dr. S.A. Ntewusu (University of Ghana)

Promotiecommissie:

Prof.dr. R.A. van Dijk

Prof.dr. A. Quayson (Stanford University)

Dr. A.F. Schrikker

Mr.dr. A.I. Richard

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS.....	iii
DEDICATION.....	vii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	viii
LIST OF FIGURES	x
ABBREVIATIONS	xi
Introduction.....	1
Urban Spaces, Plurality, Everyday Religious Encounters and Coexistence.....	1
The Beginning of a New Periscope.....	1
The Madina Project: Matters and Modalities of Coexistence in an Entangled World.....	3
Contextual Perspectives: Social Relations and Socio-Spatial Structures.....	6
Materiality, Corporeality, and Sensual Relationships.....	12
Religious Encounters and the Question of Pluralism in Ghana: A Challenge	15
Plurality and Secularities: On the Value of Relationality	19
Studying Coexistence: Historical Trajectories, Relational and Comparative Values.....	23
Lived Religion, Pollution and Daily Ritual Performances in Urban Spaces	29
Common Ground: A Socio-spatial Concept for Studying Religious Plurality and Coexistence	33
A Historical and Ethnographic Study in Common Grounds: Methodology and Positionality .	39
Itineraries of Chapters in the Study.....	44
Chapter 1.....	45
Displacements and Relocations: The Making of Madina and Religious Diversity, 1959 to Present.....	45
Introduction	45
“May Strangers Come to Join Us”: La Local Diplomatic Policies of Integration	46
Nima and Trade Fair: Narratives of Early Settlements, Displacements and Relocations.....	48
The Original Planning of the Madina Community	52
Land Acquisition in Madina in the Early Periods	54
Land Prices and the Construction of Houses in the Early Stages	56
Initial Disputes: The Politics of Place Naming	58
Linguistic Demography in Madina and Hidden Tensions	62

The Politics of Integration and Resistance: Contemporary Paradoxes	67
The Institution of Migrant Chiefs: How Migrants Govern Themselves in Madina.....	73
La (Ga) Indigenous Religion and Religious Diversity in Madina	76
Christianity in La Nkwantanang-Madina: A Story of Conflicts and Cooperation.....	78
Islam and the Muslim Community in Madina	81
Islamic Youth and Female Leadership in the Muslim Community in Madina	84
Conclusion: Madina-An Evolving Urban and Diversifying Community	85
Chapter 2.....	88
Land Governance, Social History of Urban Spaces and Contestations, 1970s-2022	88
Introduction	88
The Biography of Things: Urban Social Spaces in a Conceptual Context	90
The Zongo Junction Lorry Parks: A Story of Perpetual Contestation	91
“Biography” of the Lorry Parks in Madina: Evolution and Purpose	95
Everyday Conceptualisation of the Contested Space and the Lorry Park.....	97
The First Narrative: Muslim Community Land	99
The Second Narrative: The Baptist Church’s Land Narrative	102
Third Narrative: No Man’s Land, Everybody’s Land.....	105
The Jamaica Marketplace: The Intellectual Community That Never Was	108
Heavy and Zurak Parks: History, Contested Ownership and Power Relations	115
Conclusion: Where Wither Coexistence? Navigating Spatial Contestations in Diversifying Urban Settings	124
Chapter 3.....	126
Lorry Parks, Urban Mobilities, and Coexistence: Religious Cosmologies and Social Interactions in Madina Zongo, 2000s-Present.	126
Introduction	126
Lorry Parks in Historical Perspectives: Non-Places Versus People’s Airport.....	130
Locating the Zongo Junction Lorry Parks.....	134
Power Dynamics: Different Actors, Different Influences.....	142
Performing Coexistence: Social Cohesion and the Production of Differences.....	145
Coexistence as Everyday Politics: Language and Agency.....	146
Urban Archives and “Discourse Ecologies”: Unfriendly Tolerance.....	155
Silence as Practising Tolerance: Absence of Speech or Technique for Managing Difference?	160

Performative Dissent as Practising Coexistence	163
Social Distancing: Practising Mutual Respect, Suspicion, and Personal Safety	168
Practising Coexistence through Communitas and Everyday Conviviality	171
Coexistence as an Embodied and Material Practice.....	178
Conclusion: Lorry Parks-Agency, Performance and the Dynamics of Religious Coexistence	178
Chapter 4.....	182
The Jamaica Marketplace: Urban Spaces, Ritual Performances and Religious Diversity, 1975-2022.....	182
Introduction	182
The Marketplace as a Social Space and a Religious Field: A Theatre of Relationships.....	187
The Corporeal Dimensions of the Marketplaces.....	190
From Jamaica to BIM: Urban Development, Politics and Socio-spatial Reordering	194
Dangers of Contamination: Social Spaces and the Haunt of the Absent Other	200
Dirt, Fear, and Propriety: Conceptions of Socio-Spatial Dangers and Purity.....	204
Marketplaces and the Quest for Security: Rituals and Religious Coexistence	208
La (Ga) Marketplace Rituals: History, Politics and Practices of Collective Coexistence	210
Christians Rituals and Socio-spatial Symbolic Confrontations	217
Seeking Ecological and Spiritual Harmony: Islamic Ritual Acts of Coexistence	221
Securing Social Coexistence: The Role of Market Institutions	224
Pursuing Coexistence on Their Own Terms: Techniques from the Individual Level.....	227
Conclusion: A Precarious Social Space, Religion, Culture, Power and Coexistence.....	229
Chapter 5.....	231
The Mother of all Events: Football Parks, Religious Practices and Complex Entanglements, ca. 1990s-2019.....	231
Introduction	231
Football Parks in Ghana: Power Relations and Ritual Dimensions	234
The Heavy and Zurak Parks in the Zongo Community: Locations and Management.....	241
Diverse Cosmologies: Religious Plurality and Daily Practises on the Parks in the Zongo ..	246
Coexistence amid Loud Sonic Expressions and ‘Wary’ Ritual Performances	256
Performative Sensory Engagement and Appropriation.....	261
Normalisation and Appropriation of Islamic Sounds for Temporal Order	264
Religious Sounds as Mediators of Security	265

Emotional and Therapeutic Engagement with Religious Soundscapes	266
Comparative Insights: Techniques of Inattention	267
Conclusion: The Multilayered, Precarious, and Contested Nature of Football Parks.....	268
Religious Coexistence in an Age of Plurality: Thinking Locally, Acting Globally	271
Introduction: Madina as a Site of Religious Plurality and Urban Transformation	271
Public Spaces versus Common Ground: Rethinking Socio-spatial Frameworks	274
Ethnographies of Urban Encounters, Entangled Cosmologies and Ethics of Encounters and Coexistence	277
Theoretical Synthesis-Space, Power and Identity	283
Converges and Divergences with the Common Ground Framework	284
Contributions of the Study to Historical Scholarship and African Studies: An Overview	287
Bibliography	290
Summary	325
Samenvatting in het Nederlands	327
Curriculum Vitae	329

DEDICATION

To the cherished memories of my late mother, Georgina Ernestina A.A. Fosu, and my late sisters: Efua Ntiwaa, Ekua Anokyewaa, and Nana Yaa Amoakoa. To Adwoa, thank you for your unwavering support and inspiration! And to all who tirelessly strive to make the world a more peaceful place, continue to embody humanity!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my profound gratitude to my doctoral advisory committee: Prof. Dr. Jan-Bart Gewald, Prof. Dr. Birgit Meyer, and Prof. Dr. Samuel A. Ntewusu. Your critical and constructive comments, encouragement, patience, and empathy have been invaluable. Your thoughtful visits to my research locations were inspiring. To Prof. Jan-Bart Gewald, I appreciate your patience, generosity, unwavering encouragement, and reminders of my intellectual abilities. Your gift of over twenty books, especially Migrant Cocoa-Farmer of Southern Ghana by Polly Hill, was deeply moving. To Prof. Birgit Meyer, thank you for having me as your student on the Madina Project, for the scholarship, for opening your home and sharing Ghanaian delicacies with my colleagues and me. I appreciate your thought-provoking comments on my work, prompt responses, and for introducing me to your network. You made my time in Utrecht and participation in the Religious Matters in an Entangled World Project memorable.

Prof. Ntewusu, I am deeply grateful for your mentorship and guidance throughout my MPhil and doctoral journey. I also appreciate your impact while working as your assistant, the challenge to explore my ideas, and the best version of myself. To Prof. Dr. Martha Frederiks, thank you for your sacrifices as my unofficial supervisor, reviewing drafts and providing invaluable feedback. Your encouragement, thoughtful gestures, and generosity, including meals, the trip to the Tulip Fields, and books.

Thanks to the Netherlands Scientific Research Organisation (NWO) for awarding Prof. Meyer the Spinoza Prize, which made both the Madina Project and Religious Matters possible. I appreciate the support for my attendance at several conferences, including ECAS 2019 (Edinburgh), Groningen, GSA Triennial Conference (University of Ghana), and multiple seminars at the Meertens Institute and Utrecht University. These engagements enriched my academic journey and widened my network. To Prof. Dr. Rijk van Dijk, thank you for being the “resident Ghanaian abusupanin” at ASCL and for making my stay warm and welcoming. To Maaïke Westra, your coordination and constant updates were most helpful. I thank Prof. Dr. Jan Abbink for assessing my progress during the pandemic. To the ASCL library and support staff, my heartfelt gratitude. I thank the elders and leaders in Madina who shared invaluable insights, especially Nii Afutu, Nii Kotey Jonathan, Naa Afoley, the Queen Mother of Jamaica Market, and others. To drivers, station masters, football leaders, and religious figures, thank you for welcoming me and contributing to this work. To my Madina Project colleagues—Rashida, Martin, and Kauthar—it has been a terrific journey with you. To senior members—Dr. Rabiatu Ammah, Prof. Asamoah-Gyadu, Prof. M.T. Frederiks, Dr. Johnson Mbillah, Prof. Ntewusu, and Prof. Kodjo Senah, thank you for your guidance and challenging questions.

To Rev. Dr. Emmanuel Badu Amoah, your emotional, financial, spiritual, and intellectual support was a steady anchor. To Dr. Charles Prempeh, your critical feedback during our Utrecht encounter helped sharpen my thinking. To Dr. Akwasi Kwarteng Amoako-Gyampah, thank you for the friendship and for reading my drafts.

Thanks to the faculty at the University of Ghana’s Institute of African Studies—Prof. Kojo S. Amanor, Prof. Michael Kpessah-Whyte, Dr. Kojo Opoku Aidoo, Dr. Edem Adotey, and Dr. Mjiba Frehiwot—for your encouragement and mentorship during my MPhil.

To the Religious Matters team at Utrecht University—Dr. Schlatmann, Prof. Baumgartner, Marleen de Witte, Angelantonio Grossi, Erik Meinema, PooyanTamimi Arab, Margreet van Es, Elza Kuyk, Dr. Beekers, Chunrong Zhao, Annewieke Vroom, Manpreet Janeja, Nina ter Laan, Mariam Goshadze, Annelise Reid, Murtala Ibrahim, and Shaeed Tayoob—thank you for your camaraderie and support.

Special thanks to Jeannette Boere and Dr. Annemeik Schlatmann for your administrative support. Special appreciation to Erik Meinema, Margreet van Es, Shaheed Tayoob, Pooyan Tamimi Arab, and Elza Kuyk for your generosity and hospitality. To Prof. Benjamin Soares, thanks for the thoughtful gift, Islam and the Prayer Economy. I thank Prof. Ato Quayson and Prof. Brian Larkin for the various support and dir. To my GPAS and ASCL colleagues—Antonio Frank, Kauthar, Martin, Rashida, Tinashe, Tycho, Loes, and others—I appreciate the enriching conversations. I appreciate the staff at PRAAD and the IAS Library, especially Solomon, Gabby, Irene, Auntie Fati, Mr. Twum, Joy, Sophia, and Justice. Thanks to Kelvin Ofori and Peter Bembir for your technical support. To Eric Tei Kumado, Juliet Oppong-Boateng, Otis Kafui Tsekpo, Edwin Adjei, and many others at IAS—your friendship made this journey joyful.

Finally, to my late mother, Georgina Ernestina A.A. Fosu, and late sisters, Efua Ntiwaa, Ekua Anokyewaa, and Nana Yaa Amoakoa—your memories inspire me daily. To Adwoa, your support and belief in me kept me going. To Affum, Kumi, and Kwaku Twumasi Ankrah, thank you for your understanding, love, and, in Kwaku’s case, your strategic opposition that spurred me on. To those I could not mention, please know that I am sincerely grateful. Your contributions were vital to this accomplishment.

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1: A Map of Madina Showing Research Locations.....	49
Figure 2: Madina Zongo Junction	95
Figure 3: a bulldozer clearing debris after the demotion.....	109
Figure 4: a section of the demolished structures	111
Figure 5: A Map showing Zongo Junction Lorry Parks	134
Figure 6: Footbridge at Zongo Junction.....	138
Figure 7: A Koboloi (shadow boy) at Zongo Junction.....	142
Figure 8: Entangled Religious and Commercial Posters at Zongo Junction	157
Figure 9: Pastor Danquah preaching in the morning at the Taxi Park.....	168
Figure 10: Muslims at the Trotro Park during an Eid Festivity	172
Figure 11: Muslims Praying on the Road Leading to North Legon during Eid Festivity	175
Figure 12: A Section of the Jamaica Marketplace	184
Figure 13: A map showing the Jamaica Marketplace (BIM)	195
Figure 14: Inauguration ceremony of the Jamaica marketplace	196
Figure 15&16: The Kila Deity at the Jamaica Marketplace	211
Figure 17: A Church and Mosque at the Jamaica Marketplace	219
Figure 18: All-Night Prayer Session at the Jamaica Marketplace	221
Figure 19: A Map Showing the Football Parks in Madina Zongo (II)	241
Figure 20: A Restaurant and Pub opposite the Zurak Park..	245
Figure 21: Funeral celebration at the park. The centerpiece of the gathering is the display of the corpse in a coffin in the middle of the gathering.....	247
Figure 22: Christmas Crusade by Church of Pentecost at the Park	255
Figure 23: Muslims praying at the Park during an Eid Adha Festival.....	255
Figure 24: Muslims praying in front of the entrance of the Victory Methodist Church during an Eid Adha Festival. The Church premise was used as an extension of the park	256
Figure 25: Christmas crusade by the Church of Pentecost at the park	257
Figure 26: An Evening Khutbah at the Park	257

ABBREVIATIONS

ADB – Agricultural Development Bank
AIR – African Indigenous Religions
ASCL – African Studies Center Leiden
ATR – African Traditional Religion
BHC – Bank for Housing and Construction
BIM – Bohye International Market
CEO – Chief Executive Officer
GFS – Ghana Fire Service
GLC – Ga Local Council
GPAS – Graduate Programme African Studies
IAS – Institute of African Studies
KIA – Kotoka International Airport
LaNMMA – La Nkwantanang Madina Municipal Assembly
MCE – Municipal Chief Executive
NPC – National Peace Council
NPP – New Patriotic Party
PHC – Population and Housing Census
PNDC – Provisional National Defence Council
PRAAD – Public Records and Archives Administration Department
REDCO Ltd – Real Estate Development and Construction Company Limited
SAPs – Structural Adjustment Programmes
SMC – Supreme Military Council
TFC – Trade Fair Center
UBA – United Bank of Africa
WIUC – Wisconsin International University College