CURRICULUM VITAE

Jason Morgan-Foster is a Legal Officer and Secretary of the Court at the International Court of Justice. From 2015-2018, he served as Chairman of the Court's Conciliation Committee, the body which constituted at that time the first level of recourse for staff members in the Court's system of internal justice, with appeal to the United Nations Appeals Tribunal. He has also served as Co-Secretary of the Court's Rules Committee since 2010 and was closely involved in the major reform of the Court's internal justice mechanisms leading to the acceptance by the Court of the jurisdiction of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal in January 2019. He previously worked for the secretariat of the United Nations Administrative Tribunal and in the Codification Division of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs.

Jason completed a Bachelors Degree Magna cum laude in Romance Languages from The Colorado College, where he was a Boettcher scholar, and a Juris Doctor Cum laude from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was a Fulbright scholar. He began his initial research on the current topic in 2016 and formally enrolled as an external PhD candidate at the Grotius Centre of Leiden Law School of Leiden University in 2024 under the supervision of Prof. dr. N.M. Blokker and Prof. dr. E.C.P.D.C. De Brabandere.

Jason is co-author of The Law and Practice of International Administrative Tribunals (Cambridge University Press, 2025). He has also published in the European Journal of International Law, the Yale Human Rights and Development Law Journal, the Michigan Journal of International Law and the Chicago Journal of International Law. His work has been translated into Italian and Russian.

Jason served on the editorial board of the Leiden Journal of International Law from 2013 to 2023 and was a corresponding editor of International Legal Materials from 2007 to 2021. He is a member of the New York bar.
