CURRICULUM VITAE

Claudia Pharaon grew up in Paris, France. She completed her undergraduate studies in law at Panthéon-Assas University (Paris II), where she obtained a Licence in French Law in 2008 and a Maîtrise in Comparative Law, with a focus on English law, in 2009, following a one-year exchange at the University of Oxford. She then obtained a Master's degree in International Law and International Administration from Panthéon-Sorbonne University (Paris I) in 2010 and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School in 2012.

Her professional background includes experience with international organisations, arbitration institutions and in private practice. She completed internships with the UNFCCC Secretariat in Bonn and the OECD Anti-Corruption Division in Paris, served as a research associate at the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in London and practised with Volterra Fietta in London and Obeid & Partners in Beirut and Paris. She is qualified to practise law in Paris, England & Wales and New York.

Beyond her legal career, she has been involved in Château Kefraya, a winery based in Lebanon's Bekaa Valley and founded by her grandfather.

In December 2019, she began her PhD at the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies of Leiden Law School, Leiden University. Beginning in January 2026, she will take up teaching positions at Panthéon-Sorbonne University and the Institut Catholique de Paris (ICP) in international economic law and international investment law.
